DATE: For the June 27, 2024, Commission Meeting
TO: Members, Wisconsin Elections Commission
FROM: Brandon Hunzicker – Staff Attorney
SUBJECT: Second Representative Vos Recall Petition Sufficiency

Introduction

This memo presents two questions for the Commission’s consideration. First, after considering the recall petition against Representative Vos along with the associated challenge, rebuttal, and reply, is the petition sufficient under Wis. Stat. § 9.10(3)(b)? Second, if the petition is sufficient, within what district may a recall election be held? As discussed in greater detail below, staff recommend that the Commission find the petition sufficient, but do not make a recommendation concerning the second question.

Tomorrow, June 28, is the Commission’s deadline for issuing a certificate regarding the sufficiency of the second recall petition against Representative Vos. Wis. Stat. 9.10(3)(b) (the certificate stating sufficiency or insufficiency must be attached to the petition “[w]ithin 31 days after the petition is offered for filing”). Staff have reviewed the challenge brought by Representative Vos against the petition and have made recommendations on each individual challenge. Staff have also reviewed the rebuttal and the reply and provide an overview of those filings below along with brief staff comments in italics.¹ Finally, staff conducted a facial review of all signatures that were not challenged.

Staff counted signatures within Assembly District (AD) 63 under the district maps that were in place in 2022 and counted signatures within AD 33 under the district maps that were created by 2023 Wisconsin Act 94. These will be referred to respectively as 2022 District 63 and 2024 District 33.

Under Wis. Stat. § 9.10(1)(b), “a petition for recall of an officer shall be signed by electors equal to at least 25 percent of the vote cast for the office of governor at the last election within the same district or territory as that of the officeholder being recalled.” Considering 2022 AD 63, this would equal 6,850 signatures. Considering 2024 AD 33, this would equal 7,195 signatures. The petition itself lists “Robin Vos” as the officeholder subject to the recall petition, and that the electors signing are of the “63rd Assembly District.”

Following Commission’s vote to find the first recall petition insufficient considering 2022 AD 63 and 2024 AD 33 and AD 66, Commission staff did not evaluate how many signatures were submitted within 2024 AD 66. Though there were enough signatures in that district on the last petition, the Commission found that: “because Representative Vos was neither elected to that office, and is not the officeholder, nor resides within the district” that a recall election against him could not be called in that district. The petitioner did not contest that finding.

Because the Commission did not make any finding concerning whether a recall election could be called in either 2022 AD 63 or 2024 AD 33, staff evaluated the number of signatures presented for both districts.

Staff used an Excel spreadsheet, attached as Appendix A, to record the review of the challenges and the facial review of each signature. The spreadsheet has an entry for every signature line, including recommendations on every challenge and a recommendation that a signature is valid or invalid in both 2024 AD 33 and 2022 AD 63. Column C corresponds to 2024 AD 33, Column D to 2022 AD 63, Columns E to K to the challenges to individual signature lines, L and M to staff notes, and N and O to show whether a signature was removed due to a challenge or challenges. Attached as Appendix B are the scans of the recall petition that staff used to evaluate each challenged and each unchallenged signature.

After the initial review of all challenges and petition pages, staff conducted a secondary review to ensure consistency and accuracy. During the initial review, 15 staff members were assigned 100 pages each to review. For the secondary review, a limited number of three staff members were selected to review each packet. Limiting the number of staff for this second review allowed for targeted expertise and ensured consistency in the scrutiny of signatures and spreadsheet entries.

Following the review of the challenges, the facial review, and the second review, staff recommend that the Commission find that the petition contains:

- 6,866 valid signatures from 2022 AD 63, (6,850 required for sufficiency) and
- 3,807 valid signatures from 2024 AD 33 (7,195 required for sufficiency)

Staff recommend that because more than 6,850 valid signatures were submitted from 2022 AD 63, staff recommend that the Commission find the petition sufficient, and that the Commission formally attach a certificate of sufficiency to the petition. Under Wis. Stat. § 9.10(3)(b), “[i]f the official finds that the amended petition is sufficient, the official shall file the petition and call a recall election to be held on the Tuesday of the 6th week commencing after the date of filing of the petition.”

If the Commission finds the petition sufficient, staff have provided a brief overview of relevant information in part 2 of the discussion concerning the question of within what district may a recall election be held.

Part 1 of the discussion will provide an overview of the challenges as well as the calculations made by staff leading to the recommended motion.

Discussion Part 1 – Sufficiency of the Recall Petition

1. Staff Recommendations Concerning Challenges:

This section discusses the challenges brought against the recall petition by Representative Vos and provides a brief analysis from staff. Staff do not recommend removing any signatures due to these challenges.

a. Circulator Challenges:

Representative Vos challenges several circulator certifications under Wis. Stats. §§ 8.40(2) and 9.10(2) (em). Challenge, (8–9, 16–18). An affidavit by Ty Mrioued contains the specific allegations. Paragraph six of the affidavit alleges that circulators in an apartment building failed to provide specific apartment numbers. Mrioued Aff. (1–2). Wis. Stat. § 8.40(2) requires a circulator’s “street and number, if any” within the certification. Staff have recommended finding substantial compliance and dismissing challenges when an apartment number is missing. In this case, each circulator named provided a street and number, which on its face likely complies with the requirements of § 8.40. Staff recommend dismissing these challenges because each circulator complied with the minimum requirement to provide a street and number. If the Commission does not accept this recommendation, these pages could be restored by a correcting affidavit. Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(r)5.

Paragraphs 7 and 8 allege that the circulators provided nonexistent addresses. Id. (2). Paragraph 7 alleges that the address provided was 14695 Loring Rd. Colorado Springs, Colorado. However, Exhibit 1 and the petition pages appear to staff to say 14695 Herring Rd. Colorado Springs, and staff were able to identify a home at this address using Google maps. Paragraph 8 alleges that a circulator address is 50 Caviler Lane in Elizabethtown, Pennsylvania. However, staff, and exhibit 1, read the address as 50 Garilee Lane, and staff identified a home at this address using Google maps. Paragraph 8 alleges that a circulator address was provided as 2152 Rugler Road in Glenview, Illinois. However, staff, as well as exhibit 1, identify the address as 2152 Rugen Road, and staff found an apartment complex at this address using Google maps. Because staff were able to read an address and identify a residence for each challenged address, staff recommend rejecting these challenges.

Paragraphs 10–16 allege that circulators provided an address other than their residence. Id. (2–3). It is not clear what residency standards apply to a circular who is not a Wisconsin resident, and even evidence that could prove someone did not reside at an address under Wis. Stat. § 6.10 may fail for a nonresident circulator under Wis. Stat. § 8.40(2). However, in this case, none of the evidence provided clearly shows that a circulator does not reside at the listed address. Nothing in the affidavit presents stronger evidence for residency for a circulator than what was provided in the certifications on the petition pages and that staff must presume valid under Wis. Admin. Code § EL 2.05(4). Bank records, LinkedIn profiles, home ownership, or difficulty matching a name to an address do not prove where someone resides. The individuals researched may only share a name with the circulators, and individuals may move or provide outdated information on other forms. Far stronger evidence would be needed to show that an individual circulator resided somewhere other than the address stated on the page to overcome the presumption of validity.

Paragraphs 17–32 allege that circulators have been charged with or have been convicted of criminal offences. Id. (4–11). Unlike residency, it is clear that Wis. Stat. § 6.03(1)(b) applies to circulators who are and are not Wisconsin residents, and that anyone with a treason, felony, or bribery conviction who has not been pardoned or who has not completed their sentence would be an unqualified circulator, and that all signatures on a page circulated by such an individual would be invalid. Wis. Stats. §§ 8.40(2) 9.10(2) (em)2. However, many of the allegations—paragraphs 19, 23, 24, 25, 27, 28, 29, 31, 32—concern charges or do not state whether the crime listed is a charge or a conviction or involves a felony offence. Charges alone, no matter how serious, do not render a circulator unqualified. Paragraphs 20 and 22 concern misdemeanor convictions. The allegations in paragraphs 21, and 30 concern felony convictions, but fail to provide evidence that the circulators are still serving their sentences. Paragraph 26 states “on information and belief” that the circulator is on probation but does not provide supporting evidence other than a screenshot that appears to be from no later than 2020. The challenge on page 18 asks the Commission to independently verify whether these individuals are qualified circulators, but “the burden of proof for any challenge lies with the individual bringing the challenge” (Wis. Stat. §

9.10(2)(g)), and without providing evidence showing current felony convictions, that burden has not been met. Staff recommend dismissing these challenges.

b. False Representation Allegations:

Representative Vos alleges that three individuals “were falsely told that the recall petition was a petition to prevent farmland from being sold to Communist China.” Chal. (18). Under Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(m), “[n]o signature may be stricken on the basis that the elector was not aware of the purpose of the petition, unless the purpose was misrepresented by the circulator.” Staff have taken this to mean that if clear and convincing evidence shows that the purpose was misrepresented, that the signature should be struck. The Commission accepted recommendations under this understanding of the statute during the previous recall challenge. After reviewing the affidavits submitted by these three individuals, staff recommend striking two signatures due to the purpose of the petition being misrepresented by the circulators. Rodrigues Aff. (1–2), Schnieder Aff. (1–2). Staff used column E to record this recommendation. The third individual who provided an affidavit claims that the purpose of the petition was misrepresented, but that the individual did not sign the petition. Pomeray Aff. (1).

c. Forgery Allegations:

Representative Vos challenged a number of signatures within an affidavit submitted by a handwriting expert. Chal. 12–16. Staff note that this handwriting expert’s skills appear more suited to using known samples of writing from specific individuals to identify whether or not a contested piece of writing was written by that individual. The letter states that:

My opinion is also qualified due to the fact, no known exemplars were made available for me to use for comparison to the questioned writing. Since the request was to determine if there were any writing styles that were similar to each other rather than to identify the writer, was able to apply my skills to draw a conclusion on many of the signatures and writings provided.

Page Ltr., 4. The request to determine whether signatures were similar to each other is not directly relevant to whether or not a valid signature has been submitted. Similar writing styles alone do not show that someone other than the named signatory signed the petition, especially if something other than the signature itself is being examined. The conclusion states that, “it is my expert opinion with a reasonable degree of professional certainty that there is an abundance of fraudulent activity that occurred throughout all of the Recall Petitions listed on the first page of this report.” Id. However, “fraudulent activity” appears to mean that she believes that one person wrote parts of more than one line, or that information provided on a line was not all written by the same person. But this is a different standard than showing that the person named did not sign the paper. Very few of the exhibits attached allege that a signature itself is fraudulent, and in fact contrast the signature section with the other information on a signature line.

Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(j) states that “[i]f a challenger demonstrates that someone other than the elector signed for the elector, the signature may not be counted, unless the elector is unable to sign due to physical disability and authorized another individual to sign in his or her behalf.” Staff also apply the standards of Wis. Admin. Code § EL 2.05, where appropriate, to recall petitions, and § EL 2.05(12) uses the passive voice to state that: “[a] complete address, including municipality of residence for voting purposes, and the street and number, if any, of the residence,

(or a postal address if it is located in the jurisdiction that the candidate seeks to represent), shall be listed for each signature on a nomination paper.” This stands in contrast to § EL 2.05(8) and Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(j), which use the active voice and require an elector to sign the petition or instruct someone to sign on their behalf due to a disability.

Though staff always recommend that individuals provide all information on a signature line unless they require assistance due to a disability, as long as the signature itself is by the signatory and the information is accurate, a line should not be struck if another individual wrote other information on the line. In nomination paper review, the Commission has considered the issue of circulators filling in other information for electors to be an irregularity worthy of noting and has cautioned candidates against this practice, but it has approved the signatures for reasons consistent with the discussion below.

Most of the analysis in the letter and exhibits does not concern signatures but rather the other information of a signatory, most frequently the municipality name. Even accepting as true that the circulator wrote in the municipality names and other information on same pages does not successfully allege, or indicate, that the signature itself was forged. In many of these examples, the signature looks different than the information alleged to have been written by another person, and so long as the signature itself was written by the signatory, staff do not believe that it should be struck. Additionally, electors with disabilities may authorize another individual to sign a petition on their behalf, meaning that even if one individual signed for another, the signature may be valid. Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(j). To strike a signature, an allegation must sufficiently address this possibility. Below, staff only examine allegations concerning signatures.

On petition page 655, most of the allegations relate to municipality name and not signatures. Page Ltr. Ex. A. at A2. On line 10, the claim that someone was attempting to disguise the writing does not make sense. It does appear that one person signed, and another wrote in the rest of the information, but there is not an allegation that the information is incorrect or that the named individual is not the one who signed.

On petition page 1071, three signatures are questioned and called a “cursory attempt at disguise” but nothing describes why they appear to be disguised or alleges that someone other than the named individual signed the page. Page Ltr. Ex. B. at B3. The description shows why the signatures are different, not why they are the same, and contrasts the differences of the signatures with the other information in the signature lines.

On petition page 1209, 5 signatures are alleged to be written by the same person. Page Ltr. Ex. C. at C2. The address, municipality, and date information does look very similar, however, the signatures themselves are more distinguishable from each other. Though this is a possible case, without any affidavits from any of the signatories stating that they did not sign the page, the mere allegation that signatures look somewhat similar is not enough to meet the clear and convincing standard of Wis. Admin. Code § EL 2.07(4). The allegations raise some suspicion concerning the signatures, but do not offer any evidence specific to the signatories.

On petition page 1373, two signatures are alleged to have been written by the same individual. Page Ltr. Ex. F. at F2. Staff agree that the other information on lines 6 and 7 look very similar, but the signatures are again more distinct than the other writing, and again, the allegation that the signatures look similar and share characteristics cannot, without evidence from the signatories, meet the clear and convincing evidence standard that the individuals listed did not knowingly sign the petition.

d. Line by Line Challenges within 5 Exhibits

Representative Vos challenged thousands of individual signatures within five numbered exhibits. Exhibit 1 alleges that addresses are not 2022 AD 63. To review these signatures, staff compared each line of the challenge with the text on the recall petition and looked up the address on the petition page in the Legislative District Viewer. If staff were able to use the address as provided on the petition to identify a residence within 2022 AD 63, staff marked burden not met on the spreadsheet. Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(e)5. If staff were unable to use the address on the petition to identify a residence within 2022 AD 63, staff marked burden met in column G, and also marked “false” in column D. Staff found that some of the challenged signatures had been crossed off by the circulator, meaning that no signature was presented for staff to review. In these instances, staff wrote “struck by circulator” or similar in column L to indicate that the challenge had been reviewed, but that no action could be taken, and that no struck signature was counted toward the total. Staff recommend finding that the burden was met on 1,568 of these challenges, and not met on 113 of these challenges (crossed out signatures were excluded).

Exhibit 2 alleges that collected on May 27 and May 28 are invalid and must be struck because they were collected outside of the appropriate circulation period. Challenge (11). Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(e)2. explains that a signature may not be counted if “[t]he signature is dated outside the circulation period.” The challenge does not dispute that the application of Wis. Stat. § 990.001(4)(b) allowed the petition to be filed on May 28, but argues that the circulation period ended on May 26. Challenge, (10–11). Staff recommend rejecting these challenges, which have been recorded as burden “not met” in column H. The challenge is correct that the Commission’s own Recall of Congressional, County, and State Officials Manual states that these signatures should not be counted. However, in reviewing the governing statute, staff do not believe that the manual is correct on this point. Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d) states in relevant part that:

[t]he last date that a petition for the recall of an officer may be offered for filing is 5 p.m. on the 60th day commencing after registration. After the recall petition has been offered for filing, no name may be added or removed. No signature may be counted unless the date of the signature is within the period provided in this paragraph.

The governing statute combines the filing of the petition with the end of the circulation period. In staff’s opinion, because Wis. Stat. § 990.001(4)(b) allowed the petition to be filed on May 28, the sentence stating that “after the recall petition had been offered for filing, no name may be added or removed” would apply to May 28, making that date the end of the circulation period described in the last sentence. Wis. Stat. § 990.001(4)(b) moves the only deadline provided by § 9.10(2)(d) and does not provide a basis to separate the end of the circulation period from the filing deadline, which is treated as one and the same by the recall statute. Staff recommend rejecting these challenges because the challenge does not allege that the recall petition was filed after the deadline, or that any signatures were added after the petition was filed.

Exhibit 3 alleges that individuals signed the petition multiple times for a total of 416 duplicate signatures. Challenge, (11). Staff evaluated these allegations using column I in the spreadsheet, and marked burden met if another signature with the same name and address was found on all alleged lines. Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(i) states that “[i]f a challenger can establish that a person signed the recall petition more than once, the 2nd and subsequent signatures may not be counted.” Staff interpret this to apply to valid signatures, meaning that if the first signature is invalid for another reason, the first valid signature must be kept, and all subsequent signatures must be struck. In cases where an individual was alleged to have signed twice but the first signature was invalid, staff marked burden met for the challenge of the invalid signature and left a note explaining that the second signature was counted. No individual who was alleged to have signed a petition two or more times had more than one signature counted toward the total. Staff recommend finding that the burden was met on 375 of these challenges, and not met on 28 of these challenges (crossed out signatures were excluded).

Exhibit 4 alleges that 63 signatories did not provide a complete address for a variety of different reasons, including that no address was provided or that the address provided does not exist, or was illegible or incomplete. Challenge (11). Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(e)4. states that a signature cannot be counted if “[t]he residency of the signer of the petition sheet cannot be determined by the address given.” Staff reviewed each allegation using column J on the spreadsheet, and wrote burden met if a valid address could not be identified using the information provided by the signatory. If a valid address could be discerned, staff wrote that the burden was “not met.” Staff recommend finding that the burden was met on 42 of these challenges, and not met on 15 (crossed out signatures were excluded).

Exhibit 5 alleges that the dates provided by 35 signatories were dated after the date of the circulator. Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(e)3. states that a signature cannot be counted if “[t]he signature is dated after the date of the certification contained on the petition sheet.” Staff used column K in the spreadsheet to evaluate these allegations, and marked burden met if the signature line contained a date earlier than the certification date. Staff recommend finding that the burden was met on 33 challenges, and not met on 2 challenges.

e. District Number Challenge

Representative Vos alleges that the recall petition as a whole is invalid due to stating at the top that the signatories are electors of the “63rd Assembly District.” He argues that:

Based on the Wisconsin Supreme Court’s injunction against the prior Legislative maps, no election may occur utilizing these districts. Indeed, a special election has already been scheduled for July 30, 2024, using the new Legislative maps. As such, the recall was initiated in the incorrect Assembly District and fails.

Challenge, (1). Whether the injunction prevents a recall election to occur using distinct lines that have been declared unconstitutional remains an unresolved legal question. However, the claim that the Commission used the 2024 district maps for a special election is not entirely correct. It would be just as accurate to say that the Commission used the 2022 district maps because, for this and only a very few other districts, the lines are the same. Commission staff do not believe that the Commission holding a special election in State Senate District 4 resolved any of the relevant questions because the district number and the district boundaries remained the same. The same is not true for 2022 district 63. The territory that constituted 2022 AD 63 is now split between 2024 AD 33 and 2024 AD 66. Put simply, State Senate District 4 is a unique case because its boundaries in 2022 and 2024 are identical.

The Challenge states that, “as to ‘special or recall elections,’ the new maps apply ‘to offices filled or contested concurrently with the 2024 general election.’ Id., §2(2).” Id. (4). The Challenge argues that because nomination papers under the 2024 Legislative maps have already been accepted by the Commission for a Partisan Primary that will be held on August 13, that any recall held or called under this petition would be “concurrent” with the 2024 general election. The challenge cites an Attorney General opinion in support of this argument. Id. (6).

The Challenge also claims that Representative Vos “no longer resides in the 63rd Assembly District” and that “[b]ased on new Legislative maps that became effective on February 20, 2024, Vos now resides in the 33rd Assembly District.” Id. (3). The challenge alleges that no recall election can proceed in 2024 AD 33 because the signatories on the pages all claimed to be electors of the 2022 AD 63, stating:

WEC cannot transform the recall petitions into something they are not. Petitioner Snorek never sought a recall election for the 33rd Assembly District, and not a single elector attested that he or she was supporting a recall in the 33rd. As such, WEC cannot certify a recall for the new 33rd Assembly District. Challenge (7).

f. Request for an Evidentiary Hearing

Finally, the challenge asks the Commission to “conduct an evidentiary hearing to determine how it came to be that felons stretching from Arizona to Maryland came to southern Wisconsin to collect signatures for a State Assembly recall race.” Challenge (2, 19–20). The Commission will allow both parties to speak and present their arguments during the meeting, and staff do not believe that the further step of an evidentiary hearing would be relevant to the Commission’s determination because staff were able to evaluate and make a recommendation concerning each challenge against signatures. It is also not precisely clear what factual questions the Commission would be addressing in an evidentiary hearing apart from the allegations of fraud that were presented in the challenge itself.

2. The Rebuttal

The rebuttal first raises several procedural arguments against the challenge. The rebuttal argues that Representative Vos did not file a verified challenge because his attorney filed and signed the challenge, and he did not himself provide a verification of the challenge. Rebuttal (2). The rebuttal cites Wis. Admin. Code § EL 20.03(5), which states that “[t]he complainant, not the complainant’s representative, shall verify the allegations of the complaint,” and also Wis. Admin. Code § EL 2.11(2)(a), which states that recall challenges “shall be made by verified complaint” and that “the form of the complaint, the filing of the complaint and the legal sufficiency of the complaint shall comply with the requirements of ch. EL 20.” Id. The rebuttal also argues that the challenge was not properly served under Wis. Admin. Code § EL 20.03(6) because a copy of the challenge was not mailed to or served on the petitioner, and the challenge did not contain a certification of service. Id. 2–3. Finally, the rebuttal argues that the challenge failed to provide the address of the complainant and respondent under Wis. Admin. Code EL § 20.03(4). Id. 3. The rebuttal argues that because the challenge was not properly verified and served, the Commission should not consider the challenge and instead apply the presumption of validity to all challenged signatures. Staff believe that the procedure used for this challenge is consistent with the Commission’s past practices, and that it is not clear what aspects of Wis. Admin. Code EL 20 apply to recall challenges. The challenge was verified by counsel for Representative Vos and was received by the Petitioner by email.

The rebuttal also argues that Wis. Stat. § 9.10 does not allow the “WEC to conduct an independent examination of the Petition to determine the sufficiency of signatures,” and asks the Commission to determine that the petition is sufficient on its face. Id. 4. Staff believe that the Commission is required by Wis. Stat. § 9.10(3)(b) to conduct “a careful examination whether the petition on its face is sufficient.” Staff reviewed all signatures using the standard facial review procedures that are used for nomination papers.

The rebuttal argues that 2022 AD 63 is the correct district for a recall petition against Representative Vos, and cites Art. XIII Sec. 12 of the Wisconsin Constitution, noting that the constitution refers to recalls of “any incumbent.” Id. 6. The rebuttal argues that Representative Vos is representing 2022 AD 63 and will continue to represent that district until new incumbents are sworn in under the 2024 Legislative Maps, noting also that Art. XIII Sec. 12 provides in part that “[t]he incumbent shall continue to perform the duties of the office until the recall election results are officially certified.” Id. The rebuttal also argues that the Wisconsin Supreme Court in Clarke v. WEC did not invalidate the results of any previous election, remove any incumbents from office, or specifically prohibit recall elections concerning an incumbent. Id. 8. The Commission may discuss this argument with counsel during the meeting.

The rebuttal argues that the challenge is deficient due to Attorney Fernholz affidavits being made “on information and belief,” and that they do not explain how the allegations are based on personal knowledge. Id. 10. The affidavits, similar to all challenges evaluated by the Commission, rely primarily on the information present on the petition pages, and cite publicly available extrinsic sources as evidence. Wis. Admin. Code § EL 2.07(1), (4), and (5) require the Commission to examine any evidence submitted in a challenge, which expressly includes extrinsic sources such as district maps.

The rebuttal, replying on an affidavit of John Von Haden, contests specific allegations within the challenge. Regarding exhibit 1 (residence outside 2022 AD 63) of the challenge, it states that 241 signatures that were crossed off were challenged and that 89 individuals challenged for residing outside 2022 AD 63 reside within the district. Id. 11. Regarding exhibit 3 (duplicates), it alleges that 2 signatures were crossed off and that 17 are not duplicates. Id. 12. Regarding exhibit 4 (address issues), it alleges that 5 were crossed off, and 28 of the signatures contained identifiable and valid residences. Id. The affidavit of Mr. Von Haden states that some of the words within the challenge do not reflect the words on the page of the petition and attempts to show the accurate names and addresses. Von Haden Aff. (2). Staff did not apply any challenge to a signature that was crossed out because no such signature line could be counted toward the total. The total number of burdens met, and burdens not met markings broadly align with these recommendations, and in general, staff recommended accepting even fewer challenges than this affidavit would suggest.

The rebuttal argues that the affidavit of Ty Mrioued should not result in any signatures being removed. Id. 13. The rebuttal argues that Wis. Stat. § 8.40(2) requires only “street and number” and that a missing apartment number is thus not a deficiency, that the information about circulator residency is hearsay and not acceptable evidence, and that no information was provided showing a circulator was not a qualified elector due to a felony conviction. Id. 13–14. Staff did not recommend accepting any of these challenges.

The rebuttal argues that the signatures collected on May 27 and 28 are valid due to the application of Wis. Stat. § 990.001(4)(b). Id. 14–15. Staff did not recommend accepting any of these challenges.

The rebuttal argues that the allegations of forgeries only amount to an opinion that some of the signatures looked similar, and not that specific signatures are invalid. Id. 15–16. Staff did not recommend accepting any of these challenges.

The rebuttal argues that the affidavits from individuals claiming to have been misled do not identify the individual who misled them, and that only two of the three signed the petition. Id. 16. Staff recommended accepting the challenges based on the two affidavits from individuals who swore they had been misled.

Regarding the request in the challenge for an evidentiary hearing, the rebuttal argues that an extension of time could have been requested from a circuit court in order to conduct more fact finding before filing the challenge, and that option was not pursued. Id. Staff do not recommend holding an evidentiary hearing.

3. The Reply

Regarding the argument that the challenge was not properly filed or served, the reply argues that Wis. Stat. § 9.10 requires a challenge to be verified but does not require that the official be the one to verify the challenge and argues that references to Wis. Admin. Code § EL 20.03 apply only to complainants, and not to challengers of a recall petition. Reply (1–3). The reply also argues that the challenge relied on WEC staff concerning acceptable procedure for submitting the verified challenge. Id. (3–4). The reply also argues that the rebuttal did not comply with the same administrative code sections at issue. Id. (3–4). The reply argues that under Wis. Stat. § 9.10(3)(b), that the WEC is required to conduct its own “careful examination” before determining the sufficiency of the petition, and that the Commission would thus be required to consider the same issues in its own review. Id. (5–6). Staff recommend considering all challenge filings, and believe that the procedures used have been consistent, though the application of EL 20 will remain unclear until the Commission’s emergency rule on EL 2 takes effect and removes all references to EL 20 within EL 2.

The reply reiterates the argument in the challenge that the Commission is enjoined from holding any election in 2022 AD 63, and states that no binding court precedent exists concerning the question of what district boundary would apply but argues that the Attorney General Opinion provided in the challenge should be persuasive, and that the 2022 districts no longer exist after Act 94 repealed and replaced those districts. Id. (6–11). The Commission may discuss this argument with counsel during the meeting.

The reply alleges that the rebuttal provided no evidence to counter the allegations that circulators provided false addresses, and that the Commission should deem the arguments conceded for several of the circulators. Id. (12). It argues that because mail could not be delivered without an apartment number, the lack of a number or letter renders the address insufficient. Id. (12–13). The reply argues that the allegations of forged signatures were also not countered by an affidavit stating that the signatures are genuine. Id. (13). The reply concedes that crossed off signatures should be removed from the challenge, but that the duplicate affidavit does not explain why the signatures listed should not be removed and that the allegations of address issues and invalid dates should lead to the removal of those signatures. Id. (13–14). The reply also reiterates the argument that signatures collected after May 26 are invalid. Staff did not recommend accepting the circulator challenges, the forgery challenges, and the post-May 26 challenges.

4. Staff Calculations

After reviewing all challenged signatures staff recommend that the challenge met the burden of clear and convincing evidence for 2009 signature lines and failed to meet the burden for 375 signature lines. These numbers reflect challenged lines instead of individual challenges because several lines were challenged for more than one reason. After a facial review of the remaining signatures, staff recommend the Commission find that 3,807 valid signatures were submitted in 2024 AD 33, and 6,866 valid signatures were submitted in 2022 AD 63. The petitioner has thus submitted enough valid signatures for the Commission to find the petition sufficient regarding 2022 AD 63.

Though staff recommend finding the petition sufficient and attaching a certificate of sufficiency to the petition and formally filing the petition under Wis. Stat. § 9.10(3)(b), this recommendation does not discuss calling an election due to the unresolved question concerning the proper district for such an election.

If the Commission disagrees with some of the staff recommendations and finds the petition insufficient, the Petitioner would receive 5 days to “amend the petition to correct any insufficiency,” after which the Commission would have 5 days to again consider any amended petition for sufficiency. Wis. Stat. § 9.10(3)(b).

Discussion Part 2 – District of Recall Election:

If the Commission finds petition sufficient, the Commission would be faced with determining within which district a recall election could be held. Wis. Stat. § 9.10(3)(b) (“If the official finds that the amended petition is sufficient, the official shall file the petition and call a recall election to be held on the Tuesday of the 6th week commencing after the date of filing of the petition.”). The Tuesday of the 6th week commencing after today’s meeting would be Tuesday, August 6, though staff note that § 9.10(3)(b) does provide that “[u]pon showing of good cause, the circuit court for the county in which the petition is offered for filing may grant an extension of any of the time periods provided in this paragraph.”

This step has been complicated by the Clarke v. WEC injunction from the Wisconsin Supreme Court stating that it, “enjoin[s] the Wisconsin Elections Commission from using the current legislative maps in future elections.” Clarke ¶ 3. Relatedly, the Court stated that “[b]ecause we enjoin the current state legislative district maps from future use, remedial maps must be drawn prior to the 2024 elections.” Id. ¶ 4.

Following the injunction, the Commission filed a “Motion for Clarification of Opinion and Order as it Relates to Recall and Special Elections” with the Wisconsin Supreme Court. On April 3, 2024, the Court denied the motion, stating in its order that:

On December 22, 2023, we enjoined the "Elections Commission from using [the prior] legislative maps in all future elections" because the maps violated the Wisconsin Constitution. Clarke v. WEC, 2023 WI 79, ¶3, 410 Wis. 2d 1, 998 N.W.2d 370. Based on the submissions before us, we decline to further clarify or amend the opinion and order.

Subsequent to our December 22 order, the Legislature enacted 2023 Wisconsin Act 94, enacting new state legislative districts maps, and the Governor signed them into law. Act 94 is not before us in the Clarke case and any examination of these maps departs from the relief requested in Clarke v. WEC. We will "not depart from our general practice that this court will not offer an advisory opinion or make a pronouncement based on hypothetical facts." State ex rel. Collison v. City of Milwaukee Bd. of Rev., 2021 WI 48, ¶46, 397 Wis. 2d 246, 960 N.W.2d 1. As a threshold matter, it is WEC, not this court that has the “overall statutory responsibility for the administration of Wisconsin’s elections.” Democratic Nat’l Committee v. Bostelmann, 488 F.Supp.3d 776, 796 (W.D. Wis. 2020) (citing Wis. Stat. § 5.05(1)).

As relevant to this discussion, and as cited within the challenge, 2023 Wisconsin Act 94 in Section 2 contains an initial applicability section stating that:

- (1) This act first applies, with respect to regular elections, to offices filled at the 2024 general election.
- (2) This act first applies, with respect to special or recall elections, to offices filled or contested concurrently with the 2024 general election.

Staff do not provide a recommendation concerning this issue, and the Commission may discuss this question during the meeting, potentially seeking the advice of counsel in closed session.

Recommended Motion:

After careful examination of all signatures submitted on the petition to recall Representative Vos, and after reviewing the challenge, rebuttal, and reply as described in this memo and within the Appendices, the Commission finds that, as recommended in this memo, the petition contains 6,866 valid signatures from 2022 AD 63 and 3,807 valid signatures from 2024 AD 33. The Commission finds that the petition is sufficient regarding 2022 AD 63 because more than 25 percent of the number of electors who cast a vote for governor at the last election within that territory signed the petition. The Commission finds that the petition is insufficient regarding 2024 AD 33 because fewer than 25 percent of the number of electors who cast a vote for governor at the last election within that territory signed the petition. Staff shall use this motion to create a certificate and shall attach the certificate to the petition materials and transmit those materials and the materials discussed during this meeting to both parties.

In RE: the matter of:

May 28, 2024 Recall Petition Filed against
Representative Vos

REPRESENTATIVE ROBIN VOS' VERIFIED CHALLENGE TO THE RECALL PETITION FILED MAY 28, 2024

INTRODUCTION

The recall petition filed against Speaker of the Assembly Robin Vos fails for the following reasons.

First, the recall was initiated in the old 63rd Assembly District. Based on the Wisconsin Supreme Court's injunction against the prior Legislative maps, no election may occur utilizing these districts. Indeed, a special election has already been scheduled for July 30, 2024, using the new Legislative maps. As such, the recall was initiated in the incorrect Assembly District and fails.

Second, the recall effort once again has fallen short of the threshold of 6,850 signatures. Of the estimated 9,055 signatures submitted, nearly 2,000 were from outside the 63rd Assembly District. The number dips much lower once the remaining signature pages are stricken for circulators who failed to provide a valid address, signatures collected after the deadline, duplicate signatures, signatures that post-date the circulator signature date, and signers with missing or incomplete address information.

Third, once again the recall effort was filled with fraud and election law violations. The Vos campaign has identified numerous fraudulent signatures, signers who were lied to about the purpose of the recall, and out-of-state felons who were brought in to circulate petitions. Because of the wild allegations made by the Recall Committee that Vos hired out-of-state felons to collect signatures against him in the first recall, WEC should conduct an evidentiary hearing to determine how it came to be that felons from stretching from Arizona to Maryland came to southern Wisconsin to collect signatures for a State Assembly recall race.

BACKGROUND

On January 10, 2024, Matthew Snorek submitted to WEC a “Statement of Intent to Circulate Recall Petition” against Speaker Vos. The basis for the recall was:

Vos is blocking fair elections in WI. Vos mislead [sic] the WI Assembly in the impeachment process of Meghan [sic] Wolfe. Vos said he will “try as hard as I can to make sure Donald Trump is not the nominee in 2024. Vos supported the unlawful drop boxes. Wisconsin must move “Forward” without Vos in power.

The recall petition template indicated that it was for “Robin Vos 63rd Assembly District” and that all of the qualified electors were from the 63rd Assembly District.

Under Wis. Stat. § 9.10(1)(b), “a petition for recall of an officer shall be signed by electors equal to at least 25 percent of the vote cast for the office of governor at the last election within the same district or territory as that of the officeholder being recalled.” WEC determined that the number of signatures necessary to trigger a recall election in the old 63rd Assembly District is 6,850. On April 11, WEC determined that the recall petition fell short of the 6,850 signatures requirement for the 63rd Assembly District.

Not only did the first recall petition fall woefully short of the required signatures, but it was plagued with fraud and election law crimes. For example, out-of-state felons circulated petitions using fake addresses to hide their identities. At least 23 individuals had their names fraudulently added to the recall petition, including children. Recall circulators lied to voters about the basis for the recall, and even cornered a woman in a parking lot and intimidated her into signing a petition for “women’s rights.” The circulators also submitted signatures from an incapacitated woman, a non-citizen, and an inmate. All of these crimes were outlined in Vos’ challenge to the recall petition in March. Vos subsequently filed a verified complaint with WEC on May 23 against Snorek and the other circulators who participated in the election law violations. That complaint remains pending.

Sensing that he was hoisted with his own petard in the first recall, Snorek did not even bother waiting until WEC made a final determination before initiating a second recall on March 27. The basis for the second recall had a different rationale, though no less understated:

Robin Vos should be recalled for his tacit support of the Chinese Communist Party (CCP), acceptance of money and trips from the CCP, failure to protect Wisconsin farmland from the CCP, lack of commitment to election integrity, blocking lower prescription drug costs, and flagrant disrespect for his own constituents by calling them “whack-jobs, morons, and idiots.”

In its Campaign Registration Statement, the Racine Recall Committee provided that it was seeking to recall Vos in the 63rd Assembly District, which is the District that Vos was elected to in 2022. However, Speaker Vos no longer resides in the 63rd Assembly District. Based on new Legislative maps that became effective on February 20, 2024, Vos now resides in the 33rd Assembly District.

In a Memorandum issued March 28, WEC Chief Legal Counsel Jim Witecha alluded to the Wisconsin Supreme Court’s injunction in Clarke v. Wisconsin Elections Comm’n, 2023 WI 79, 410 Wis. 2d 1, 998 N.W.2d 370, in which the supreme court enjoined further use of the Legislative maps that were in place in the 2022 elections. Attorney Witecha cautioned that WEC “has NOT yet formulated its opinion on recall and circulation district viability in light of Clarke.” On April 3, the Wisconsin Supreme Court declined WEC’s request to offer guidance on which legislative maps applied to recall elections.

On May 28, Snorek submitted 1,491 pages of recall petitions with an estimated 9,055 signatures.

ARGUMENT

I. Because the Wisconsin Supreme Court Has Enjoined Any Election From Occurring in the Old 63rd Assembly District, the Recall Was Improperly Initiated and Cannot Proceed

On December 22, 2023, the Wisconsin Supreme Court held that the Legislative districts which were in place in the 2022 elections violated the Wisconsin Constitution’s contiguous-territory requirement. Clarke v. Wisconsin Elections Comm’n, 2023 WI 79, ¶¶ 34, 77, 410 Wis. 2d 1, 998 N.W.2d 370. As a remedy, the court enjoined WEC from using the then-current maps “in all future elections.” Id., ¶¶ 56, 77. The court further provided the remedial maps must be adopted prior to the 2024 elections. Id. The decision did not provide any exceptions, and the statewide injunction remains in effect today, prohibiting any elections under the maps which have been determined unconstitutional.

On February 19, 2024, Governor Evers signed Senate Bill 488, which created new legislative districts. See 2023 Wis. Act 94 (published February 20, 2024). As to “regular elections,” the new maps apply “to offices filled at the 2024 general election.” Id., §2(1). Likewise, as to “special or recall elections,” the new maps apply “to offices filled or contested concurrently with the 2024 general election.” Id., §2(2).

We have already entered the 2024 general election stage, as the deadline for the submission of nomination papers for the August 13 partisan primary was June 3. See Wis. Stat. § 8.15(1). WEC has until June 28, 2024, to certify this recall petition. See Wis. Stat. § 9.10(3)(b). Assuming this recall is certified, it would result in the recall taking place on August 6 or even August 13 (the date of the partisan primary). See Wis. Stat. § 9.10(3)(b). If there is a primary, it would occur on August 6 or 13, with the general election four weeks after that. See Wis. Stat. § 9.10(3)(f). As such, we have already reached the stage where the recall is running “concurrently” with the 2024 general election.

This is no longer a hypothetical scenario. On May 14, 2024, Governor Evers signed an Executive Order calling for a special election in the 4th Senate District. Executive Order #225. The election shall be held on July 30, 2024, with any potential primary occurring on July 2, 2024. Id. The order calls for use of the new maps under 2023 Act 94. Id. No legal challenge has been filed to this order, and nomination papers were due June 4. Id. Barring any court order that the Executive Order was unlawful, a special election will run under the new legislative maps prior to this potential recall election. It is inconceivable that WEC could certify a special election on July 30 under the current legislative maps, but then flip back and certify a recall election in August or September under the old legislative maps.

The Attorney General’s Office has reached the same conclusion in a prior redistricting dispute. Following the 1980 census, the Wisconsin Legislature and the Governor were unable to agree on new legislative district boundaries. The matter went to litigation before a three-judge federal panel, and on February 22, 1982, the court “entered an order declaring the current reapportionment scheme unconstitutional and enjoining the defendant state Elections Board from preparing for or administering any elections using the current Senate and Assembly districts.” Wisconsin State AFL-CIO v. Elections Bd., 543 F. Supp. 630, 632 (E.D. Wis. 1982). The court subsequently dissolved the injunction and entered a final order with new legislative maps. Id. at 639. The court’s order was to “be effective for the 1982 legislative elections and thereafter until such time as a valid constitutional redistricting plan is enacted into law.” Id.

Following the court's decision, Senate President Fred Risser requested a formal opinion from Attorney General Bronson La Follette on how the old district map would be applied to elections held before November 1982. The Attorney General issued a formal opinion on August 19, 1982, that answered the following two questions thusly:

1. Are the electors of the old district or the electors of the new district required to sign petitions to recall a holdover senator?

Answer: Electors of the new district.

2. Are the electors of the old district or those of the new district entitled to vote in a special election to fill a vacancy in the office of a holdover senator?

Answer: Only electors of the new district.

No. OAG 48-82, 1982 WL 188344, at *1 (Wis. A.G. Aug. 19, 1982). As the Attorney General opined, "the old districts cannot be utilized for purposes of nomination and election after June 17, 1982 [the date of the federal court's order]. For purposes of nomination and election, the new legislative district lines became effective that date." Id. The Attorney General further determined that "neither recall elections nor elections to fill a vacancy can be based on an apportionment plan which has been found unconstitutional." Id. at *3.

As to the question of whether potential recall signatures must come from the district lines used in the 1980 elections or the ones to be used in the 1982 elections, the Attorney General was emphatic:

In regard to recall petitions, the state constitution provides that '[s]uch petition shall be signed by electors . . . in the . . . district from which such officer is to be recalled.' It does not require signatures by electors in the district from which the officer was elected although the districts would in the usual event be identical.

Id.

The Clarke injunction combined with 2023 Wis. Act 94 means that the old 63rd Assembly District cannot be used for the recall election. Based on the new legislative maps, Speaker Vos' current residence places him in the 33rd Assembly District. This is the only District in which a recall election could take place.

Because the recall cannot proceed in the 63rd Assembly District, the recall was improperly initiated and must be rejected out of hand.

II. No Recall Election Can Proceed in the New 33rd Assembly District Because the Recall Petitions Never Referenced this District

For the reasons stated above, the recall cannot occur under the prior 63rd Assembly District. But conducting a recall election in the new 33rd Assembly District is just as problematic, if for different reasons. The recall petitions all state that that the signatories are “qualified electors of the 63rd Assembly District.” The signatories (at least those who actually were in old 63rd Assembly District) in effect attested to a recall for an Assembly District that no longer exists.

WEC cannot transform the recall petitions into something they are not. Petitioner Snorek never sought a recall election for the 33rd Assembly District, and not a single elector attested that he or she was supporting a recall in the 33rd. As such, WEC cannot certify a recall for the new 33rd Assembly District.

III. Thousands of Signatures Must be Stricken

Because the recall was initiated for an Assembly District that can no longer be used for elections, this second recall effort must be dismissed out of hand. Alternatively, even if the 63rd Assembly District is utilized for the recall, the effort fails because, once again, Snorek's petition has fallen short. This section identifies thousands of signatures that must be stricken for a variety of reasons, which results in the petition falling well short of the 6,850 required for certification.

A. Signatures From Outside of the 63rd Assembly District Must be Stricken

Although WEC has yet to perform a preliminary review of signatures that fall outside of the 63rd Assembly District, the Vos campaign’s initial review identified 1,922 signatures that fall outside of the District. (Fernholz Aff., Ex. 1.)

B. Numerous Circulators Provided False or Incomplete Address Information

Recall circulators must provide their “residence with street and number” on each circulated petition. Wis. Stat. § 8.40(2). A violation is a Class I felony. See §§ 8.40(2), 12.13(3)(a), 12.60(1)(a). Numerous circulators violated this provision by providing incomplete or outright false address information.

Several circulators listed non-existent addresses:

- Justin Gracier lists an address of 14695 Lorryng Road, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80908. Per the local County Assessor’s office, this address does not exist.
- John Adamson at 50 Caviler Lane in Elizabethtown, Pennsylvania.
- Gabriela Brumar at 2152 Rugler Road in Glenview, Illinois.

(Mrioued Aff., ¶¶ 7-8.)

Other circulators provided an address that they are no longer residing at, a parent’s address, or a completely irrelevant address to where they currently reside:

- Dax Brown provided an address of 2983 E. Millen Way in Fresno, California. Based upon information provided by his bank record, it would appear that Brown actually resides at 6346 N. Selland Avenue in Clovis, California. Indeed, Brown even provides the City of Clovis as his location in his LinkedIn profile.

- Doug Bricker, provided an address of 1877 Fruitwood Avenue in Batavia, Illinois. Based on a PeopleMap search, Mr. Bricker resides at 45491 Muirfield Drive, in Canton, Michigan.
- Gary Alan Feldman’s correct address is 1026 Knorr Street in Philadelphia, PA. However he provided a house address of 626 Knorr Street in Philadelphia, PA.
- Joshua Foss provided an address of 12241 State Highway 27 in Ferryville, Wisconsin. However, all records show that he presently resides at E3656 Sandy Bay Road in Kewaunee, Wisconsin.
- Michael Kim provided an address of 1441 E. Germann Road, Apartment 2135 in Chandler, Arizona. The Vos campaign was not able to locate anyone by that name living at this apartment complex.

(Mrioued Aff., ¶¶ 12-16.)

Finally, the following circulators reside in an apartment complex but failed to provide their apartment numbers: Grace Huff, Ambriel Six, Justin Moser, Brandon Hawks, Kimimila Webster Thunder, and Jordon Flynn. (Mrioued Aff., ¶ 6.)

Each page submitted by the circulators identified in this section must be stricken.

C. Circulation Pages Collected After May 26, 2024 Must be Stricken

Pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 9.10, a petition for the recall of an officer cannot be circulated until after the registration under Wis. Stat. § 11.0902 has been completed. § 9.10(2)(d). The petition must be filed by 5:00 p.m. on the 60th day after registration. Id. No signature may be counted unless the date of the signature is within the period described in § 9.10(2)(d). Id.; see also § 9.10(2)I2. Once the recall petition has been offered for filing, no name may be added or removed. Id.

When computing time provided by statute, “[t]he time within which an act is to be done . . . shall be computed by excluding the first day and including the last; and when any such time is expressed in hours the whole of Sunday and of any legal holiday, from midnight to midnight, shall be excluded.” Wis. Stat. § 990.001(4)(a). “If the last day within with an act is to be done . . . falls on a Sunday or legal holiday the act may be done . . . on the next secular day.” § 990.01(4)(b).

The requirements for circulating a recall petition are discussed in Wisconsin Elections Commission’s Recall of Congressional, County, and State Officials Manual, which provides:

Circulation of the recall petition must be completed within 60 days after the petitioner files a campaign registration statement and intent to circulate a recall petition with the filing officer. The completed petition must be offered for filing (submitted to the filing officer), no later than 5:00 p.m. on the 60th day after the date of registration. Any signature on a recall petition that is dated either before the date of registration or more than 60 days after the registration date is invalid.¹

If the deadline for submitting the petition falls on a weekend or holiday, the petition must be filed by the next business day, but valid signatures may not be dated outside of the 60-day circulation window.

Wisconsin Elections Commission, Recall of Congressional, County and State Officials, Aug. 2020, at 2 (emphasis added). Similarly, the instructions for preparing recall petitions that are included with the recall petition form provides: “the petition shall be filed no later than 5:00 p.m. on the 60th day after registration of the recall committee. After the petition is filed, no name may be added or removed. Any signature obtained before registration or after the appropriate circulation period may not be counted. Individuals or committees seeking to recall elected officials should carefully review Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(e) concerning the validity of signatures on recall petitions.” Wisconsin Elections Commission Form EL-170 Instructions.

¹ Measuring 60 days from the date of registration results in 61 actual days during which petition signatures are valid.

Here, the Statement of Intent to Circulate was filed on March 27, 2024, which made the petition due by 5:00 p.m. on May 26. However, because May 26th was a Sunday and May 27th was a holiday, the petitioners were able to file the petition by 5:00 p.m. on May 28th. Yet the 60-day circulation window still ended at 5:00 p.m. on May 26.² Therefore, any signatures collected after the 26th are invalid.

The Vos campaign has identified 347 signatures from May 27 and 28 which must be stricken. (Fernholz Aff., Ex. 2.)

D. Additional Signatures That Failed to Comply With Wisconsin Law

While information included in a petition is “entitled to a presumption of validity,” signatures of individuals are subject to challenge. Wis. Admin. Code EL 2.05(4).³ For example, “[o]nly one signature per person for the same office is valid.” EL 2.05(11). The Vos campaign has identified 416 duplicate signatures. (Fernholz Aff., Ex. 3.)

A signer must provide a “complete address, including municipality of residence for voting purposes, and the street and number, if any, of the residence.” Wis. Admin. Code EL 2.05(12). If the address of the signer “is missing or incomplete,” it cannot be counted, “unless residency can be determined by the information provided on the nomination paper.” EL 2.07(15)(c). Sixty-three signers did not provide valid or complete address information. (Fernholz Aff., Ex. 4.) “No signature may be counted when the residency of the circulator cannot be determined by the information given on the nomination paper.” EL 2.05(14). Accordingly, Vos challenges these signatures.

² While the circulation window ends at 5:00 p.m., as the Recall Petition does not require time, it would be impossible to tell what signatures, if any, were collected after that time.

³ While Wis. Admin. Code EL 2.05 applies to nomination papers, the same standards are incorporated into recall petitions. Wis. Admin. Code EL 2.09(5).

Finally, Wisconsin law provides that a “signature on a petition sheet may not be counted if . . . [t]he signature is dated after the date of the certification contained on the petition sheet.” Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(e)3. The Vos campaign has identified 26 signatures which were dated after the circulator’s signature date. (Fernholz Aff., Ex. 5.) Vos challenges all signatures on these petitions in which the date of the signer post-dates the date of the circulators’ signature.⁴

IV. Once Again, the Recall Effort Was Plagued By Fraud and Criminality

The shambolic nature of the first recall effort was well-documented and is the subject of a formal complaint that was filed by Vos against Snorek and other circulators on May 23. While counsel for the Recall Committee blamed the criminal behavior in the first recall on vague and unsubstantiated allegations of “outside infiltrators from New York and Florida,” the recallers assured the public that this time around would be different. It appears that the second recall is nothing more than a bad remake.

As set forth below, the Vos campaign has uncovered evidence of circulators forging names and signatures on the recall petitions, out-of-state felons who circulated petitions, and individuals who were told they were signing not a recall petition, but a petition to prevent the Chinese Communist Party from purchasing Wisconsin farmland. And this was all uncovered in the span of just 10 days, making it likely this is a mere sample of Snorek and the recallers’ underhanded efforts at election fraud. Apparently, some lessons need to be learned twice.

A. At Least Four Circulators Forged Names on Petitions

Vos retained Eileen Page, a court-recognized expert witness on handwriting, to review a sample of suspicious signature pages submitted by the Recall Committee. Page’s report and curriculum vitae are enclosed with this challenge. Although Page reviewed just a small number of recall petitions, her findings were alarming.

Page examined nine petition pages that were circulated by Josias Andujar, Gail Golec, Vlad Litvin, and Larry Grafanakis. Page's assessment of these nine pages is as follows:

Writing Comparison: Exhibit A (2pp)

1. 04/21/2024 – Page No. 655 – Josias Andujar, circulator (10 signatures)
 - Illustrates similarities that are unique idiosyncrasies that show ownership of style. An example would be the lower case “t” in “burlington.” In row #1 & 2. It starts at the top and descends to form a loop that ascends and is eventually used to form the t-bar. That unique characteristic referred to as an idiosyncrasy, is also found in row #4 and #6. This is a good example of the same person writing all 4 words.

Writing Comparison: Exhibit B (3pp)

2. 05/16/2024 – Page No. 1071 – Gail Golec, circulator (6 signatures)
 - Illustration of too many extremes in a writing style.
 - Illustration of unnatural differences in one set of cursive signatures combined with too many unexplained similarities in the second set of cursive signatures.
 - Illustration of similar writing styles that were probably done by the same writer.

Writing Comparison: Exhibit C (2pp)

3. 05/20/2024 – Page No. 1209 – Vlad Litvin, circulator (6 signatures)
 - Illustrates an obvious example of the same person writing all the signatures and additional information in all five rows.

Writing Comparison: Exhibit D (3pp)

4. 05/23/2024 – Page No. 1344 – Gail Golec, circulator (7 signatures w/3 crossed out)
 - Illustrates the misuse of tremulous writing. There are examples of writing with tremors and some without supporting the argument that the writing has been disguised and is therefore not authentic.
 - Illustrates some examples of writing style differences and similarities.

Writing Comparison: Exhibit E (3pp)

5. 05/25/2024 – Page No. 1347 – Gail Golec, circulator (8 signatures)
 - Illustrates examples of comfort level and discomfort in writing cursive. The top signature is authentic while the two tremulous signatures below it are fabricated and therefore are not considered authentic signatures.
 - Illustrates unexplained differences because there are too many variations in one style of writing to be considered authentic.
 - Illustrate strong similarity indicating that one writer wrote “Burlington” on all 5 lines and one writer wrote all the dates.

Writing Comparison: Exhibit F (2pp)

6. 05/25/2024 – Page No. 1373 – Gail Golec, circulator (8 signatures)
 - Illustrate examples of similarities indicating one writer even when the alleged cursive signatures are illegible scribbles.

Writing Comparison: Exhibit G (2pp)

7. 05/27/2024 – Page No. 1375 – Gail Golec, circulator (10 signatures)
 - Illustration of extreme signature discrepancies. This vast miss-match of writing styles is an example of fraudulent activity.

Writing Comparison: Exhibit H (2pp)

8. 05/27/2024 – Page No. 1376 – Gail Golec, circulator (10 signatures)
 - Illustration of unexplained differences among all the writing styles. There is too many variables in line quality, legibility, pressure patterns and letter formations and proportions.
 - Illustration at the bottom of the page is another example of extreme differences in the names of the signer and the strong similarities in the printed information.

Writing Comparison: Exhibit I (2pp)

9. 05/27/2024 - Page No. 1389 – Larry Grafanakis (10 signatures)
 - Illustrates a misuse of tremors to disguise the person’s writing style.

Page concluded, “[a]fter a careful and thorough examination of all the evidence provided, it is my expert opinion with a reasonable degree of professional certainty that there is an abundance of fraudulent activity that occurred throughout” the petition pages she reviewed. The examples were:

- Similar characteristics were identified in the various writing styles in the signatures, addresses and numbers. The prevalence of such similarities ultimately determined that it is highly probable that one person wrote more than one signature and potentially the corresponding information in that row.
- Differences that were evident were unnatural and unexplainable and therefore have been determined that it is highly probable that the writer attempted to disguise his/her writing style so that identifying ownership of style would be hampered.
- Tremulous strokes were also used intermittently to disguise style ownership. However, that strategy makes fraudulent activity more obvious because tremors are a consistent process when they are authentic.
- Mix and match writing styles were used to camouflage letter formations and overall legibility. Although that does happen on occasion, the changes that occur in a person’s writing under those conditions are usually subtle and still maintain characteristics that determine ownership. When the changes are drastic in appearance and extreme in occurrence, they are categorized as fraudulent activity.
- Illegible letters were used in the form of angular lines, circular motions, or a combination of chaotic lines going in various directions. Over the years, there has been an increase in signatures that look more like an illegible scribble; however, when a scribbled signature has a particular motion, slant, size, pressure pattern, and line quality, those characteristics are implemented into the printed and/or cursive writing in a more legible form. Many of the scribbled signatures on the petitions were erratic and had too many unexplained variations from the other writing in the row to be considered authentic. Verification could be strengthened with a comparison to the known exemplars.

It is a felony to forge a signature on a recall petition. See Wis. Stat. §§ 8.40(2), 12.13(3)(a), 12.60(1)(a). All nine of these pages must be stricken.

This also calls into question every single petition submitted by these four individuals. As described more fully below, WEC should conduct an evidentiary hearing before it accepts any signature pages submitted by these four individuals. This requirement is especially warranted given that Snorek submitted numerous fraudulent signatures in the first recall attempt.

B. Once Again, the Recall Committee Relied on Out-of-State Felons to Circulate Nomination Papers

Wisconsin does not permit convicted felons to vote, unless they have completed the term of their sentence, including probation or extended supervision. Wis. Stat. §§ 6.03(1)(b), 304.078(3). Anyone who is not eligible to vote is likewise not eligible to circulate recall petitions. Wis. Stat. § 8.40(2).

Set forth below are 14 circulators with confirmed criminal records:

1. Stephen Wright, Saline County, Arkansas, has been charged with:
 - i. Possession Controlled Substance Sch I, II
 - ii. Possession Controlled Substance Sch VI
 - iii. Possession of Drug Paraphernalia
2. D. Reed Porter, Walworth County, convictions for:
 - i. Battery, Domestic Abuse
 - ii. Disorderly Conduct, Domestic Abuse
3. Jonathan Korte, Brown County, conviction for:
 - i. Felony 2nd Degree Sexual Assault of Child
4. Michael Morin, Baltimore, Maryland, conviction for:
 - i. Several charges and convictions of Assault in the 2nd degree
 - ii. Order of protection granted against Morin on December 24, 2023
5. Timothy LaRose, Baltimore, Maryland, conviction for:
 - i. Failure to return to & remain at scene of accident
 - ii. 2019 arrested on felony fugitive warrant in Florida

6. Jesus Aguilera, Baltimore, Maryland, charges of:
 - i. Possession with intent to deliver narcotics (non-marijuana)
 - ii. Possession of a firearm during a drug trafficking crime
7. Alex Iten, Baltimore, Maryland:
 - i. Two charges for assault
8. Laura Lolya, Brevard County, Florida, convictions for:
 - i. DWI
 - ii. Possession of Marijuana
 - iii. May 10, 2024, DUI causing damage
9. Kelly Walker, Arizona, charges for:
 - i. Fighting
 - ii. Disorderly conduct
 - iii. Breach of peace
 - iv. Interference with an educational institution
 - v. Refuse order to leave educational property
 - vi. Walker failed to appear in court. It is believed, based upon the information found, that there is presently a warrant for her arrest.
10. Brittany Baker, North Carolina:
 - i. Pending criminal charges in North Carolina from a January 30, 2024 DWI arrest.
11. Jason Zehe, Waukesha County:
 - i. Pending OWI with PAC ≥ 0.15 from April 4, 2024 (24-TR-1656)
12. Elvira Brooks, Milwaukee, conviction for:
 - i. Child Abuse – Neglecting a Child, Found Guilty at Court Trial
13. Mark Harry Gabriel, Texas, Ohio, and Wisconsin, convictions for:
 - i. Criminal Trespass, Fort Worth, Texas
 - ii. Criminal Trespass, Cleveland, Ohio
 - iii. Criminal Trespass, Dallas, Texas
 - iv. Obstruction, Wisconsin
14. Eric Paige, Illinois, convictions for:

- i. Resisting – Obstructing Officer
- ii. Unlawful Possession of Drug Paraphernalia
- iii. Reckless Conduct
- iv. Disorderly Conduct/Assault

(Mrioued Aff., ¶¶ 17-32.)

For the out-of-state felons, it is difficult to determine if all of them have completed their sentences. If these circulators had not completed the terms of their sentences, they would be prohibited from voting in Wisconsin, and thus prohibited from serving as circulators. As such, WEC should verify whether each of these individuals would be eligible to vote in Wisconsin, and thus eligible to serve as circulators. See Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(em)2.

This is especially important given the Recall Committee’s stated concern that the first recall effort was “sabotaged” by criminals from out of state. Was Snorek aware that all of these individuals were circulating recall petitions? If not, how did they come to circulate petitions? Such questions provide a reasonable basis for WEC to conduct an evidentiary hearing.

C. Once Again, Individuals Were Misled Prior to Signing the Recall

It is a felony for a circulator to fraudulently procure signatures by misrepresenting the nature of the recall petition. See Wis. Stat. § 8.40(2) (Circulator must attest that he “knows that [signers] signed the paper with full knowledge of its content.”). Once again, the recall effort relied on false pretenses to obtain signatures. Three individuals were falsely told that the recall petition was a petition to prevent farmland from being sold to Communist China. (See Affidavits of Leann Pomeroy, Kent Schneider, and Jessica Rodriguez.)

There are likely additional signers who signed under false pretenses. The Vos campaign retained a communications firm, FLS Connect, that texted 2,927 individuals who may have signed the recall petition with the following: “Friends and neighbors of Robin Vos here. Our records indicate that you may have signed a petition to recall Republican Robin Vos. Because of reports of fraud, we are texting to confirm you are not a victim.” (Berkley Aff., ¶¶3-4.) FLS asked recipients the following:

- Text 1 back to confirm you signed the petition.
- Text 2 back to confirm you signed this petition but were not aware of its purpose. For example, some believed they were signing to save farmland or better fund education.
- Text 3 back to confirm you do not believe you signed this petition and you do not support a recall election.

(Id., ¶4.) Between June 4 and June 5, FLS received 24 responses of “Text 2” and 24 responses of “Text 3.” (Id., ¶5.)

D. WEC Should Conduct an Evidentiary Hearing to Determine the Full Scope of Election Fraud Committed by Snorek and the Recall Committee

This challenge has set forth a substantial amount of election fraud committed by the second recall effort. However, given the tight statutory time constraints imposed for challenging the roughly 9,000 signatures, much work remains and many questions are left unanswered. WEC should exercise its authority to order an evidentiary hearing.

“Any challenge to the sufficiency of a petition required to comply with s. 8.40, Stats., shall be made by verified complaint filed with the appropriate filing officer. The form of the complaint, the filing of the complaint and the legal sufficiency of the complaint shall comply with the requirements of ch. EL 20; the procedure for resolving the complaint, including filing deadlines, shall be governed by this section and not by ch. EL 20.” Wis. Admin. Code EL § 2.11(2)(a). “After the deadline for filing a response to a challenge, the filing officer shall decide the challenge with or without a hearing.” EL § 2.11(3).

Wisconsin Admin. Code EL § 20.06, which governs hearings, provides, in pertinent part:

(1) Before issuing a final decision or order on the merits of a complaint filed with the commission under this chapter, the commission or its administrator shall conduct an evidentiary hearing, under ch. 227, Stats., if either of the following occurs:

(a) In the commission's judgment, a hearing is necessary in the interest of justice and a material question of fact exists.

(b) A hearing is expressly required by statute.

(2) Before issuing a final decision or order on the merits of a complaint filed with the commission under this chapter, the commission or its administrator may conduct an evidentiary hearing, under ch. 227, Stats., when:

(a) The commission concludes that facts exist which have not been presented and which may tend to resolve the dispute.

(b) The commission, in its discretion, determines an evidentiary hearing is appropriate.

EL § 20.06 (1)-(2). Because EL § 2.11(3) permits the filing officer to decide the challenge with or without a hearing, which ultimately pertains to the sufficiency of the verified complaint/challenge to the recall petition, EL § 20.06 gives WEC the authority to conduct an evidentiary hearing on a challenge to a recall petition.

At the April 11 hearing on the first recall petition, counsel for the recall committee raised concerns that the first recall had been “sabotaged” and “infiltrated” by “outsiders from New York and Florida,” possibly “at the behest of Robin Vos or on his behalf.” Whether that assertion was based on evidence or was a fevered dream has not been determined. But given the involvement of out-of-state criminals in the second recall effort, it seems plausible that the Recall Committee will again try and blame their own election fraud on Vos and his campaign. Given the stakes and the allegations of fraud, an evidentiary hearing would be appropriate, where recall circulators could testify under oath and be subject to cross-examination. See Matter of Recall of Redner, 153 Wis. 2d 383, 394 n.6, 450 N.W.2d 808 (Ct. App. 1989) (“One instance where it may be proper to hold an evidentiary hearing [in a recall challenge] is when significant fraud or misrepresentation is alleged by the challenger . . .”).

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth herein, WEC should decline to certify the recall petition.

Letter of Opinion

Re: Recall Petitions - Wisconsin

Request:

Attorney Matthew Fernholz retained my services to examine and compare all the writing on several "Recall Petitions" to determine if there were any signs of fraudulent activity.

Questioned documents provided: (all copies)

1. 04/21/2024 – Page No. 655 – Josias Andujar, circulator (10 signatures)

Equipment available for use:

- Macro-scope Zoom (18 x 36)
- Digital microscope (10 x 220) with photograph and computer capability
- Canon Digital Camera – model 40D
- Transmitted light pad & magnifying glass
- Slant gauge and measurement grids
- HP Desktop computer with a 24" screen
- HP Office Jet printer, for copying, scanning, and making enlargements

Methodology:

The guidelines recommended by ASB (Academy Standards Board) have been implemented in the examination process of the handwriting on the documents provided and in the overall preparation of this report. My many years of education, professional training, and field experience have also been incorporated into the examination process, and ultimately, the final determination(s) made in this report.

Selected principles utilized in handwriting identification:

1. The brain, primarily in conjunction with the neuromuscular system, controls and establishes a person's individualized handwriting process by the contraction and release of various movements of the arm, hand, and fingers.
2. An individual's handwriting style is made up of formations and movements that create unique habitual writing patterns for that person and only that person. These observable patterns include, but are not limited to, such things as slant, size, rhythm, pressure, spacing, baseline placement, letter formations and proportions, line quality, legibility, and stroke idiosyncrasies.
3. No two handwritings are alike. Because of the complexity of the writing process combined with the fact that handwriting is primarily a fine motor activity, not even the same person can exactly replicate his/her own writing.
4. When either attempting to trace or use free hand simulation, it is extremely difficult to maintain all the writing patterns and unique characteristics of another's handwriting.

Writing Comparison: Exhibit A (2pp)

1. 04/21/2024 – Page No. 655 – Josias Andujar, circulator (10 signatures)
 - Illustrates similarities that are unique idiosyncrasies that show ownership of style. An example would be the lower case “t” in “burlington.” In row #1 & 2. It starts at the top and descends to form a loop that ascends and is eventually used to form the t-bar. That unique characteristic referred to as an idiosyncrasy, is also found in row #4 and #6. This is a good example of the same person writing all 4 words.

Writing Comparison: Exhibit B (3pp)

2. 05/16/2024 – Page No. 1071 – Gail Golec, circulator (6 signatures)
 - Illustration of too many extremes in a writing style.
 - Illustration of unnatural differences in one set of cursive signatures combined with too many unexplained similarities in the second set of cursive signatures.
 - Illustration of similar writing styles that were probably done by the same writer.

Writing Comparison: Exhibit C (2pp)

3. 05/20/2024 – Page No. 1209 – Vlad Litvin, circulator (6 signatures)
 - Illustrates an obvious example of the same person writing all the signatures and additional information in all five rows.

Writing Comparison: Exhibit D (3pp)

4. 05/23/2024 – Page No. 1344 – Gail Golec, circulator (7 signatures w/3 crossed out)
 - Illustrates the misuse of tremulous writing. There are examples of writing with tremors and some without supporting the argument that the writing has been disguised and is therefore not authentic.
 - Illustrates some examples of writing style differences and similarities.

Writing Comparison: Exhibit E (3pp)

5. 05/25/2024 – Page No. 1347 – Gail Golec, circulator (8 signatures)
 - Illustrates examples of comfort level and discomfort in writing cursive. The top signature is authentic while the two tremulous signatures below it are fabricated and therefore are not considered authentic signatures.
 - Illustrates unexplained differences because there are too many variations in one style of writing to be considered authentic.
 - Illustrate strong similarity indicating that one writer wrote “Burlington” on all 5 lines and one writer wrote all the dates.

Writing Comparison: Exhibit F (2pp)

6. 05/25/2024 – Page No. 1373 – Gail Golec, circulator (8 signatures)
 - Illustrate examples of similarities indicating one writer even when the alleged cursive signatures are illegible scribbles.

Writing Comparison: Exhibit G (2pp)

7. 05/27/2024 – Page No. 1375 – Gail Golec, circulator (10 signatures)
 - Illustration of extreme signature discrepancies. This vast miss-match of writing styles is an example of fraudulent activity.

Writing Comparison: Exhibit H (2pp)

8. 05/27/2024 – Page No. 1376 – Gail Golec, circulator (10 signatures)
 - Illustration of unexplained differences among all the writing styles. There is too many variables in line quality, legibility, pressure patterns and letter formations and proportions.
 - Illustration at the bottom of the page is another example of extreme differences in the names of the signer and the strong similarities in the printed information.

Writing Comparison: Exhibit I (2pp)

9. 05/27/2024 - Page No. 1389 – Larry Grafanakis (10 signatures)

- Illustrates a misuse of tremors to disguise the person's writing style.

Qualified opinion:

My opinion is qualified due to the fact that all of the writing samples used for my examination were copies since the originals were not made available. However, I remain confident in my conclusion because the copies I had were clear and of good quality. If the originals become available, I would be glad to examine them because I anticipate that they would further support my findings.

My opinion is also qualified due to the fact, no known exemplars were made available for me to use for comparison to the questioned writing. Since the request was to determine if there were any writing styles that were similar to each other rather than to identify the writer, I was able to apply my skills to draw a conclusion on many of the signatures and writings provided.

Conclusion:

After a careful and thorough examination of all the evidence provided, it is my expert opinion with a reasonable degree of professional certainty that there is an abundance of fraudulent activity that occurred throughout all of the Recall Petitions listed on the first page of this report. This fraudulent activity included the following:

- Similar characteristics were identified in the various writing styles in the signatures, addresses and numbers. The prevalence of such similarities ultimately determined that it is highly probable that one person wrote more than one signature and potentially the corresponding information in that row.
- Differences that were evident were unnatural and unexplainable and therefore have been determined that it is highly probable that the writer attempted to disguise his/her writing style so that identifying ownership of style would be hampered.
- Tremulous strokes were also used intermittently to disguise style ownership. However, that strategy makes fraudulent activity more obvious because tremors are a consistent process when they are authentic.
- Mix and match writing styles were used to camouflage letter formations and overall legibility. Although that does happen on occasion, the changes that occur in a person's writing under those conditions are usually subtle and still maintain characteristics that determine ownership. When the changes are drastic in appearance and extreme in occurrence, they are categorized as fraudulent activity.

- Illegible letters were used in the form of angular lines, circular motions, or a combination of chaotic lines going in various directions. Over the years, there has been an increase in signatures that look more like an illegible scribble; however, when a scribbled signature has a particular motion, slant, size, pressure pattern, and line quality, those characteristics are implemented into the printed and/or cursive writing in a more legible form. Many of the scribbled signatures on the petitions were erratic and had too many unexplained variations from the other writing in the row to be considered authentic. Verification could be strengthened with a comparison to the known exemplars.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Eileen M. Page". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned below the typed name.

Eileen M. Page

RECALL PETITION

TO: The Wisconsin Election Commission (jurisdiction or district of officeholder)
 (official with whom nomination papers or declaration of candidacy for the office is filed) Assembly District 63

We, the undersigned qualified electors of the Wisconsin Constitution and § 9.10 of the Wisconsin Statutes.

petition for the recall of Robin Vos (name of officeholder to be recalled and office)

STATEMENT OF REASON FOR RECALL

The reason for recall must be stated on petitions for city, village, town, and school district officials. The reason must be related to the official responsibilities of the officeholder. No statement of reason is required to initiate the recall of state, congressional, legislative, judicial, or county officials.

Robin Vos should be recalled for his tacit support of the Chinese Communist Party (CCP), acceptance of trips from the CCP, failure to protect Wisconsin farmland from the CCP, lack of commitment to election integrity, blocking lower prescription drug costs, and flagrant disrespect for his own constituents by calling them "whack-jobs, morons, and idiots."

I, Josias Andujar, certify I reside at 776 47th Ave Vero Beach FL 32906
(name of circulator) (circulator's residence - include number, street, and municipality)

I further certify I am either a qualified elector of Wisconsin, or a U.S. citizen, age 18 or older who, if I were a resident of this state, would not be disqualified from voting under Wis. Stat. § 6.03. I personally circulated this recall petition and personally obtained each of the signatures on this paper. I know that the signers are electors of the jurisdiction or district represented by the officeholder named in this petition. I know that each person signed the paper with full knowledge of its content on the date indicated opposite his or her name. I know their respective residences given. I support this recall petition. I am aware that falsifying this certification is punishable under § 12.13(3)(a), Wis. Stats.

Similarities - The similar handwriting characteristics in the word "burlington" in #1 & 2 are obvious and include size, slant, pressure patterns, spacing, line quality, letter formation and proportion. One significant writing style idiosyncrasy is the way the t is crossed. The similarities in #4 & 6 are more subtle and yet are still thought to be written by the same hand due to the matching letter formations, especially the unique t-crossing.

#1 & 2

#10 - Discrepancies - The abundance of inconsistencies indicates that the writer was attempting to disguise the writing. These discrepancies include variations in pressure patterns, letter sizes, formations and proportions and the overall writing style.

#2 - Cursive signature

A cursive signature written on a horizontal line, slanted forward. The letters are connected and difficult to decipher.

Forward slant, illegible

#2 – Different printing styles

Two lines of text: the top line is 'Kaden Shepard' written with a forward slant, and the bottom line is 'Kaden Shepard' written with a vertical slant.

top = forward slant, fairly legible bottom = vertical slant, very legible

A line of text 'Wilson St' written with a vertical slant, appearing somewhat irregular.

many irregularities, legible

#3 - Cursive

A cursive signature written on a horizontal line, slanted forward. The letters are highly irregular and difficult to read.

Irratic, forward slant, illegible

#3 - Different printing styles

A line of text 'CHRISTOPHER HISEY' written in all caps with a vertical slant, appearing structured.

Structured, vertical slant- all capitals, legible

A line of text 'Sheard Rd' written in a copybook style with a vertical slant.

structured, vertical, copybook style

#4-6 – Last name comparison = “Bauer”

Different style

Similar Style

- Discrepancies between cursive signatures and the printscript names.

The cursive signatures are a cursory attempt at disguise due to the haphazard letter formations containing variations in size, slant, spacing and baseline placement which ultimately affects legibility.

- Similarities among the writing style in the printscript names .

All 3 of the printscript names were made with more care and control which is in strong contrast to the handwriting style observed in the cursive signatures. Their consistencies in letter formation and proportion, spacing and baseline placement all contribute to their legibility, very little of which is seen in the cursive signatures.

#4-6 – Letter and number comparison

3322 Sheard Rd	Dover	5/16/24
3322 Sheard Rd	Dover	5/16/24
3322 Sheard Rd	Dover	5/16/24

Apparent similarities in number configurations (most predominantly in #5&6), letter formations and proportions, spacing, line quality and baseline placement.

#2 & 3 – Similarities – In spite of the fact that the cursive signatures are quite different, all of the printed writing and the street numbers and dates share many common handwriting characteristics which connects both writing samples to one writer.

#6 & 7 – Similarities – The scribbled cursive signatures share many similar directional movements, spacing, size, and pressure patterns so it is probable that they were both done by one writer. Even though the slant of the printed writing in #7 is backhand instead of vertical as seen in #6, the letter and number formations, size proportions, spacing, line quality, and baseline placement are all very similar in both samples.

STATEMENT OF REASON FOR RECALL

(The reason for recall must be stated on petitions for city, village, town, and school district officials. The reason must be related to the official responsibilities of the officeholder. No statement of reason is required to initiate the recall of state, congressional, legislative, judicial, or county officials.)

Robin Vos should be recalled for his tacit support of the Chinese Communist Party (CCP), acceptance of trips from the CCP, failure to protect Wisconsin farmland from the CCP, lack of commitment to election integrity, blocking lower prescription drug costs, and flagrant disrespect for his own constituents by calling them "whack-jobs, morons, and idiots."

#8 & 9 - Tremors - Tremors occur in writing for many and various reasons. Tremors in writing are consistently evident. In other words, tremulous lines do not just show up and then disappear instantly. When that intermittent process occurs, it is an indicator of fraudulent activity. The writing below is an example of tremulous lines appearing and then are replaced by a even line quality.

Curriculum Vitae

Education/Training:

- ❖ Master of Arts Degree in Critical and Creative Thinking, University of Massachusetts, Boston, MA – 1993. Provided specialized skills in analyzing and evaluating data and developing effective strategies for problem solving and decision making.
- ❖ Bachelor of Science Degree in Elementary Education, Fitchburg State University, Fitchburg, MA, Emphasis placed on the teaching, implementing, and deciphering the various nuances of both printed and cursive handwriting.
- ❖ General Certification in Graphoanalysis – International Graphoanalysis Society, Chicago, IL – 1986. Training in measuring, identifying and assessing the unique characteristics and various behavior patterns of cursive writing.
- ❖ Master Certification in Graphoanalysis – International Graphoanalysis Society, Chicago, IL – 1988. More advanced training in measuring, identifying, and comparing the more diverse characteristics and behavioral patterns of printed and cursive writing styles as well as the corresponding stroke patterns evident in the various letter formations and proportions, rhythm, directional pressure, line and letter spacing, baseline placement, slant, size, and stroke idiosyncrasies.
- ❖ Certificate of Achievement – (WADE) World Association of Document Examiners, Chicago, IL; Six Year Resident Training Program, 1997-2002. Transcripts for the completed courses and workshops attended available upon request.
- ❖ Certified Graphologist – American Association of Handwriting Analysts – 2014.
- ❖ Continuous training by reading, conducting, and presenting research to various professional groups and by attending the various international annual conferences from 2003 to present. Most recent:
 1. 2018 – (7/19 - 7/21) – American Association of Handwriting Analysts (AAHA)
Onsite Convention - Best Western Adams Inn, Quincy, MA
 2. 2020 – (9/21 – 9/23) – International Association of Document Examiners (IADE)
Online - Sixth Annual Interactive Seminar (3 days)
 3. 2021 – (9/13 – 9/15) – International Association of Document Examiners (IADE)
Online - Seventh Annual Interactive Seminar (3 days)
 4. 2021 – (11/22) – Passed Annual Proficiency Exam given by the International Association of Document Examiners (IADE)

5. 2022 – (10/10 - 10/12) – International Association of Document Examiners (IADE)

Online and onsite – Cocoa Beach, FL - Ninth Annual Interactive Seminar (attended 1 day online)
 8. 2023 – (12/12) – Passed annual Proficiency Exam given by the International Association of Document Examiners (IADE)
- ❖ Weekly online classes in the field of handwriting and document examination, and court testimony conducted by Handwriting Expert, Kathie Koppenhaver, 2020 to present.

Experience:

- ❖ Has been deemed court qualified in Massachusetts and New Hampshire and has testified in Land Court in Boston, Family and Probate Court in Canton and Brockton, and Superior Court in Dedham, Woburn, Worcester, Brockton, and Boston.
- ❖ Has worked on hundreds of cases involving examining questioned signatures on documents such as contested Wills, Quitclaim Deeds, Powers of Attorney, Notary Journals, checks, various types of loans, as well as identifying writers of many slanderous and threatening anonymous notes.
- ❖ Created and taught (at satellite sites) a 3-credit graduate course entitled, “Handwriting Enrichment and Implementation” as well as several other field related courses. This course was taught primarily to other educators to help them understand the mechanics of penmanship and how one’s unique handwriting style begins to develop in a child at an early stage of development. It also covered some basic forensic information about suspect signatures and anonymous note writing. Adjunct faculty - Fitchburg State University, Fitchburg, MA (1994 – 2009) Framingham State University, Framingham, MA (2010 – 2020)

Accomplishments:

- ❖ Published Master's Thesis, "Exploring Graphokinesics Critically and Creatively" International Graphoanalysis Society, Chicago, IL 1996. Kinesics is the study of movement and “grapho” refers to any graphic mark which includes, doodles, scribbles, printed and cursive writing, and drawing. A research project was conducted which focused on the similarities and differences between writing and drawing.
- ❖ Published instructional text, A Humanistic Approach to Penmanship. Burnham Inc., Chicago, IL - 2000. It focuses on the mechanics and complexities of the printed and cursive writing process. Includes the results of field studies conducted while transitioning a group of 3rd graders from printing to cursive writing.

- ❖ Published article based on WADE seminar presentation, “You’re Never Too Young to Write an Anonymous Letter.” This article shares a case study of two 9 year old girls who claimed to be receiving slanderous anonymous notes. WADE Exchange, October 1998.
- ❖ Paper written entitled, “Numerical Identification” – This case shared the importance of looking at numbers as a significant source of evidence, not only because numbers are not often changed when signatures are altered; but also, because numbers can take on the shape of printed letters. Findings presented at WADE Seminar, Chicago, IL - 2001.
- ❖ Research demonstrating how to measure similarities between printed and cursive writing with regards to slant, spacing, pressure pattern characteristics, letter size and proportion, and assessment of any existing idiosyncrasies. Findings were presented at WADE seminar, Chicago, IL - 2002.
- ❖ Identified the writer of an anonymous “Albany Letter” as the Zodiac Killer. History Channel Documentary – shown in part 4 of a 5 part series – began on November 15, 2017.
- ❖ Published handwriting analysis blind research project (pp 258,259,271-273 in book) on the personality profiling of Charles Whitman, the Texas University shooter. Tower Sniper by Monte Akers et al. John M. Hardy Publishing Company: Houston, TX - 2016.
- ❖ Published article, “A Blind Study Using Handwriting for Personality Profiling” The Crucible, the newsletter of the American Investigative Society of Cold Cases (AISOCC). August 2018. Attended their Annual Conference at College of St. Rose, Albany, NY - April 2019.
- ❖ Published blind research project (pp 195, 196 in book) comparing the similarities and differences of 8 printed foreign handwriting samples to determine potential sibling/twin relationships. All the siblings were from Columbia and the samples were written in Spanish. Accidental Brothers, Nancy L. Segal, Ph.D., (Professor of Psychology and Director of Twins Studies @ University of California in Fullerton) St. Martin’s Press: New York, 2018.
- ❖ Lecture, “Looking Beyond Letters” presented at the American Association of Handwriting Analysts International Convention, July 19-21, 2018 - Best Western Adams Inn, Quincy, MA. Lecture demonstrated how letters, numbers, symbols, scribbles, and shapes can have an uncanny connection and be compared and identified from 3 shared elements, a straight line, a curved line, and a dot.
- ❖ Published favorable ruling on a complex Land Court case involving several questioned signatures on a Quitclaim Deed, Power of Attorney Form, Notary Journal, and a loan. Massachusetts Lawyer’s Weekly, No. 14-081-18. (14 pages) McNeff v. Cerretani – Middlesex Land Court, Boston – Judge Karen Scheier (Docket No. Misc 16-000327) Sept. 12, 2018. Case was appealed and the original ruling of Judge Scheier was upheld.
- ❖ Published article in the International Association of Document Examiners (IADE) newsletter, “Under the Microscope.” Vol. 7 No. 2 – Fall, 2021. Article was entitled, Identifying Simulation in Fraudulent Signatures. Using a case study, several identifying factors were explained and illustrated to determine simulation of signatures.

- ❖ Presentation – “A Challenging Anonymous Note” – given online at the Eight Annual International Association of Document Examiners (IADE) Conference on October 10, 2022. The case involved a printed anonymous anti-semitic remark written on a flowered pillow-case in a college dorm room. There were 9 letters written on the pillow case but, because of the photograph taken, only 5 of the letters could be used for my examination. Because the known writing samples provided involved such similar printing done by 3 adolescent freshman females, I resorted to creating ratios which I then converted to percentages in order to determine the writer of the note and ultimately solving the case.
- ❖ Participated in a historical research project conducted by William W. Reynolds in Sarasota, Florida – May 13, 2022. Wrote an opinion authenticating the “signature heading” on last page of the Articles of Capitulation which was part of the Yorktown Surrender Document written by Lord Cornwallis in 1781.
- ❖ Presentation – “A Case of a Holographic Will” – given online at a continuing education session for the International Association of Document Examiners (IADE) January 19, 2023.
- ❖ Provided a second opinion on an anonymous note that was presented as evidence in the 1833 trial held in Fall River, Massachusetts incriminating Ephraim Kingsbury Avery for the murder of Sarah Maria Cornell. The report was completed in October, 2023 and will be published in a book that the author expects to have available in 2025. The title and the author will be disclosed at that time.

Memberships and Offices held:

- ❖ World Association of Document Examiners (WADE - went into receivership 2003) previous life member and served on President’s Advisory Board, 2001-2002.
- ❖ New England Society of Handwriting Analysts, (NESHA) - member 1986 – present; vice-president, 1988-1989; President, 1990-1991; Treasurer, 2015 – present.
- ❖ International Graphoanalysis Society, (IGAS) life member, 1988 – present. Voted, “Graphoanalyst of the Year” 1997.

Invited to serve on the Board of Trustees 2023.
- ❖ American Investigative Society of Cold Cases (AISOCC) – consulting member, 2017 - 2020. Attended 3-day Cold Case Conference in Albany, NY - 2017.
- ❖ International Association of Document Examiners (IADE), member – 2020 – present. Invited to serve on the Board of Directors as Membership Co-Chair – 2022 – present.

In RE: the matter of:

May 28, 2024 Recall Petition Filed against
Representative Vos

AFFIDAVIT OF TY MRIOUED

STATE OF WISCONSIN)
) ss.
WAUKESHA COUNTY)

Ty Mrioued being duly sworn on oath deposes and states as follows:

1. I am an adult resident and citizen of the State of Wisconsin and make this affidavit based upon personal knowledge of all facts set forth herein.

2. I am employed as a litigation paralegal by Cramer Multhauf LLP, counsel for Representative Robin Vos in the above-entitled action.

3. I have over ten years of experience with conducting legal and investigative research. On a regular basis, I use an investigative program named PeopleMap, which is premium paid service provided by Thomson Reuters' West Law. PeopleMap allows me to find current and accurate addresses based on a wide range of data including motor vehicle registrations, utility companies, real estate transaction data, social media, criminal records, and other contributors.

4. On May 29, 2024, I received a true and correct copy of the Recall Petition signature pages submitted to the Wisconsin Elections Commission in this matter. In my review of these pages, I was able to identify 111 petition circulators.

5. I conducted a background investigation on over 100 of the Recall Petition circulators and make this affidavit to summarize some of my findings.

6. My first finding was that a number of circulators listed an address to an apartment complex, however, fail to provide an apartment number. The names of the circulators who failed to meet the requirement of providing a complete address, including apartment number, are:

- a. Grace Huff provided an address of 50377 Oak View Drive, Chesterfield MI
 - b. Ambriel Six provided an address of 50345 Oakview Drive, Chesterfield, MI
 - c. Justin Moser provided an address of 50345 Oakview Drive, Chesterfield, MI
 - d. Brandon Hawks provided an address of 237 S. Winstead Rocky Mount NC
 - e. Kimimila Webster Thunder provided an address of 207 Centennial Dr. North Sioux City SD
 - f. Jordon Flynn provided an address of 207 Centennial Dr. North Sioux City SD
7. My next finding was that some circulators used addresses that simply do not exist.

For example, Circulator, Justin Gracier lists an address of “14695 Lorryng Road, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80908.” I attempted to locate this property on Google Maps, however, I was unsuccessful in doing so. Based on the inability to locate the property, I contacted the El Paso County Real Property Assessor’s office via their website and conducted a street name search for Lorryng Road. Per the El Paso County Assessor’s office, Lorryng Road does not exist.

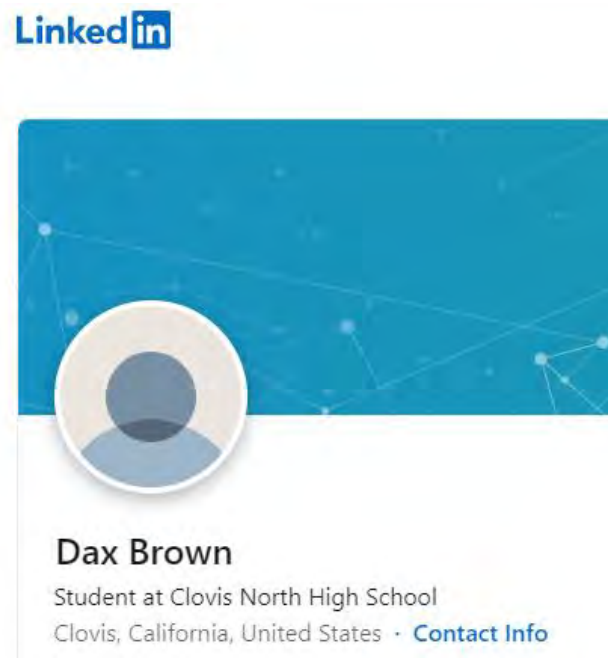

8. Other examples of non-existent addresses are those listed by John Adamson and Gabriela Brumar, who provided addresses of 50 Caviler Lane in Elizabethtown, Pennsylvania and 2152 Rugler Road in Glenview, Illinois, respectively.

9. Based on the information I am able to access via PeopleMap, I am able to pinpoint with a very high degree of certainty where someone is currently residing.

10. During my investigation, I was able to ascertain that several circulators provided an address that they are no longer residing at, a parent’s address, or a completely irrelevant address than where they currently reside.

11. For example, circulator Dax Brown provided an address of 2983 E. Millen Way in Fresno, California. Based upon information provided by his bank record, it would appear that Mr. Brown actually resides at 6346 N. Selland Avenue in Clovis, California. Indeed, Mr. Brown even provides the City of Clovis as his location in his LinkedIn profile. Below is a screenshot taken from Mr. Brown's LinkedIn profile:

12. Other examples of circulators providing outdated or incorrect address are Doug Bricker, Gary Alan Feldman, Joseph Pekarek, and Michael Kim.

13. Doug Bricker, provided an address of 1877 Fruitwood Avenue in Batavia, Iowa. PeopleMap confirmed for me that Mr. Bricker owns and resides at the residence located at 45491 Muirfield Drive, in Canton, Michigan.

14. Gary Alan Feldman's correct address is 1026 Knorr Street in Philadelphia, PA, however he provided a house address of 626 Knorr Street in Philadelphia, PA.

15. Joshua Foss provided an address of 12241 State Highway 27 in Ferryville, Wisconsin, however, all records show that he presently resides at E3656 Sandy Bay Road in Kewaunee, Wisconsin.

16. And finally, Michael Kim. Mr. Kim provided an address of 1441 E. Germann Road, Apartment 2135 in Chandler, Arizona. During my investigation, I was not able to locate anyone by that name living at this apartment complex.

17. In addition to address and residency discrepancies, I noted a serious amount of criminal history among the group of circulators. I was surprised to find that several of the circulators had been charged and convicted of numerous counts of possession of controlled substances, OWIs, DWIs, bank fraud, battery, and child sexual assault. It should be noted that at least one of the circulators allegedly has an active warrant for her arrest out of Arizona.

18. The circulators' criminal histories are set forth below by name, location, and crime(s).

19. Stephen Wright, as recent as March 27, 2023, Saline County, Arkansas:

- i. Possess Controlled Substance Sch I, II
- ii. Possess Controlled Substance Sch VI
- iii. Possession of Drug Paraphernalia

I am including a screenshot of his mugshot and charge history below:

Brown County Case Number 1999CF000514 State of Wisconsin vs. Jonathan J Korte

The defendant Jonathan J Korte was found guilty of the following charge(s) in this case.

- 2nd Degree Sexual Assault of Child, a class C felony, Wisconsin Statutes 948.02(2).

Charge(s) in this case were read in to this or other case(s). A "read in" charge is a charge that is dismissed as part of a plea agreement, however:

- The defendant agrees to have the court consider the charge(s) when sentencing for another crime, under Wis. Stats. 973.20(1g)(b); and
- The defendant cannot be prosecuted for these charge(s) in the future.

22. Michael Morin, Baltimore, Maryland:

- i. Several charges and convictions of Assault in the 2nd degree
- ii. Order of protection granted against Mr. Morin on December 24, 2023

Based upon court records, it would appear that these charges were eventually dropped by the State of Maryland in January of 2023 after Mr. LaRose failed to appear for several court appearances.

24. Jesus Aguilera, Baltimore, Maryland:

- i. Possession with intent to deliver narcotics (non-marijuana)
- ii. Possession of a firearm during a drug trafficking crime

25. Alex Iten, Baltimore, Maryland:

- i. Two charges for Assault

26. Laura Lolya, Brevard County, Florida:

- i. DWI
- ii. Charged with Possession of Marijuana, later dropped by the State.
- iii. Ms. Lolya was found guilty of Reckless Driving involving Alcohol or Controlled Substance in the 2nd Degree. Ms. Lolya was placed on Probation in the State of Florida as part of her sentence. Upon information and belief, Ms. Lolya is currently on probation with the State of Florida Department of Corrections.

27. Kelly Walker, Arizona:

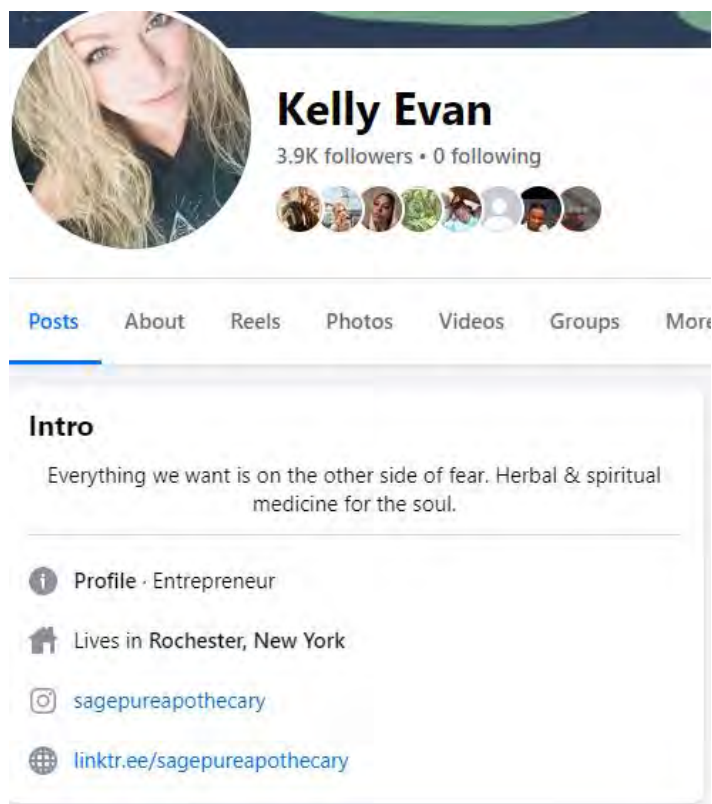

- i. Fighting
- ii. Disorderly Conduct
- iii. Breach of Peace
- iv. Interference with an educational institution
- v. Refuse order to leave educational property
- vi. Ms. Walker failed to appear in court. It is believed, based upon the information found, that there is presently a warrant for her arrest.

Additional information located shows that Ms. Walker’s current name is Kelly Evan Smith, who now resides in Webster, New York. I contacted the City of Columbia, Tennessee Recorder’s office via their website and their records show that Ms. Walker/Smith/Evan sold the home located at 643 Taylor Bend Road sometime in 2021 or 2022. A screenshot taken from the Columbia Recorder’s website is below:

Year	Receipt #	Owner Name / Address
2023	0020722	Wallace Charles Thomas Iii 643 Taylor Bend Rd
2022	0019847	Wallace Charles Thomas Iii 643 Taylor Bend Rd
2021	0016620	Smith Kelly E Etvir Kevin 643 Taylor Bend Rd
2020	0011734	Meritage Homes Of Tennessee 643 Taylor Bend Rd

Another interesting fact about the 643 Taylor Bend Road address is that the City's records show that it is a registered address for "Sage Pure Apothecary, LLC." Based on the misrepresentations by Ms. Walker/Smith/Evan, I began searching for additional records relating to this business. On Facebook, I was able to locate Ms. Walker/Smith/Evan's page for Sage Pure Apothecary. A copy of the screenshot is below. It should be noted that Ms. Walker/Smith/Evan provides her location as Rochester, New York.

Lastly, I confirmed that Ms. Walker/Smith/Evan is, in fact, the owner of Sage Pure Apothecary, LLC with the Tennessee Secretary of State. Below is a screenshot of my findings:

In the Matter of:

Petition for Recall
Speaker Robin J. Vos
Filed May 28, 2024

REBUTTAL OF PETITIONER

NOW COMES Petitioners Racine Recall and Matthew Snorek, who provide this rebuttal related to the recall petition for Speaker Robin J. Vos filed May 28, 2024 (the “Petition”).

I. SPEAKER VOS DID NOT FILE A VERIFIED CHALLENGE AS REQUIRED BY WISCONSIN LAW, THE PETITION MUST BE CERTIFIED AND A RECALL ELECTION CALLED.

Attorney Jim Witecha of the Wisconsin Elections Commission sent an email to counsel for, and representatives of, Petitioner on June 7, 2024. Attached to the email was a document entitled “Representative Robin Vos’ Verified Challenge to the Recall Petition Filed May 28, 2024” (the “Document”) along with several attendant affidavits and exhibits. Unfortunately, the title of the document is misleading as it is not a verified challenge to the Petition.

In fact, no verified challenge to the Petition has been filed within the allotted 10-day window for doing so. As a result, the Petition must be certified, and a recall election called for Tuesday, July 9, 2024.

A. Speaker Vos has filed no Verified Challenge to the Petition

Wisconsin law provides that any challenge to the sufficiency of a recall petition must be made be “verified complaint.” EL 2.11(1), (2)(a). “The form of the complaint, the filing of the complaint and the legal sufficiency of the complaint shall comply with the requirements of ch. EL 20.” EL 2.11(2)(a). Chapter EL 20.03(5) provides—

- (5) The complainant, not the complainant's representative, shall verify the allegations of the complaint. The complainant verifies the complaint by signing a statement under oath before a notary public or other person authorized to administer oaths. The verification statement, or a statement to the same effect, shall state as follows:

“I, (complainant's name), being first duly sworn upon oath, state that I personally read the above complaint and that the above allegations are true and correct based on my personal knowledge and, as to those allegations stated on information and belief, I believe them to be true.”

The verification shall be placed at the bottom of the complaint.

The Document contains no verification by Speaker Robin Vos. The “verification” provided is by Speaker Vos’s representative—Attorney Matthew Fernholz. This is forbidden by Chapter EL 20.03(5). As a result, the Document cannot serve as a challenge to the Petition.

There has also been a lack of compliance with Chapter EL 20.03(6). That section provides—

The complainant shall mail to, or personally serve on, the respondent a copy of the complaint no later than the time of filing the complaint with the commission and shall certify to that service on the complaint or in a cover letter filed with the complaint.

No representative of Petitioner received a copy of the Document or any of the attendant affidavits or exhibits via personal service or by mail. Counsel for Petitioner received copies of the documents from Mr. Witecha via email. Notably there is no certification of the required service by Speaker Vos in the Document or in a cover letter as required by Chapter EL 20.03(6).

Finally, the Document does not contain “the last known address of the complainant and the respondent” as required by Chapter EL 20.03(4).

The Document is fatally flawed for its failure to comply with Chapter EL 20 and cannot constitute a verified challenge to the Petition. Therefore, there is no need for Racine Recall to address the substantive allegations contained therein. Further, there are no grounds at this point for WEC to do anything but certify the petition as sufficient and call a recall election.

B. Because there was no Challenge filed, the Petition is sufficient.

The lack of any challenge to the Petition necessarily means it is sufficient, must be certified, and a recall election called.

The burden of proof for any challenge to the Petition is held by Speaker Vos. Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(g). There is a presumption of validity as to any information presented in the Petition. Chapter EL 2.05(4); 2.09(1). As Speaker Vos has not presented any verified challenge, he has not, and cannot meet his burden to overcome the presumption of validity of any information found in the Petition, and it must be certified as sufficient.

The Petition contains over 9,000 signatures, none of which have been challenged. Section 9.10 and Chapter EL 2.11 clearly require that any challenge must be made by verified petition. While sections 9.10(h) through (L) provide standards relating to the efforts of a “challenge” and/or a “challenger.” Here there is no “challenge” nor is there a “challenger,” and there is no basis for WEC to disallow any signature found in the Petition.

Further, there is no provision in Wis. Stat. § 9.10 allowing for WEC to conduct an independent examination of the Petition to determine the sufficiency of signatures. Again, the information in the Petition is presumed valid. Section 9.,10 squarely placed the burden of proof on the officer. Any authority it has to disallow signatures or otherwise determine the Petition as invalid is based upon the officer against whom the recall is asserted first filing a verified challenge to same. Wis. Stat. § 9.10(3)(b); EL 2.07(2)(a).

To the extent it is unclear under the law whether or not WEC has the independent authority to examine the Petition and disallow signatures, "statutory provisions relating to recall are to be liberally interpreted in favor of the electorate." In re Carlson, 147 Wis.2d 630, 635, 433 N.W.2d 635 (Ct. App. 1988). There is no legal basis for WEC to "read into" section 9.10 a provision allowing it to challenge the sufficiency of the Petition independently.

WEC's only authority is to determine whether, "on its face," the Petition is sufficient and so state in a certificate attached to the Petition. Absent any challenge to the Petition, and thus the complete failure to meet the burden of proof to challenge any element of the Petition, WEC has no choice but to determine the petition is sufficient on its face, certify it as such, and call a recall election called in the 63rd District on Tuesday, July 9, 2024.

II. THE ELECTORS OF DISTRICT 63 HAVE A CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO RECALL SPEAKER VOS.

A. The Constitutional Right to a Recall of the Electors of District 63 is clear.

It is the height of irony that Speaker Vos, a person who took an oath of office to uphold the Wisconsin Constitution, is now arguing that the very people who elected him do not have a constitutional right guaranteed by that document.

The Wisconsin Constitution requires that the Commission employ the District 63 map as provided per the District map based on 2022 Johnson v. WEC \(4/15/22\) ("District 63") in all aspects of any recall process related to Speaker Vos. This is unless and until he runs in and is elected to office through another election based upon the maps created and soon to be implemented through 2023 Act 94.

The recall of an elective officer is a constitutional right granted to qualified electors of a Wisconsin assembly district. WI Const art XIII Sec 12 provides in pertinent part—

The qualified electors of...any...legislative district...may petition for the recall of any incumbent elective officer after the first year of the term for which the incumbent was elected, by filing a petition with the filing officer with whom the nomination petition to the office in the primary is filed, demanding the recall of the incumbent.

(emphasis added) Subsection (1) provides—

(1) The recall petition shall be signed by electors equalling at least twenty-five percent of the vote cast for the office of governor at the last preceding election, in the state, county or district which the incumbent represents.

(emphasis added)

The "incumbent elective officer" of District 63 is Speaker Vos. He is the "incumbent" representative of what the Commission, somewhat inaccurately, refers to as “old” District 63.¹ Per the Wisconsin Constitution Speaker Vos continues to represent the people of that district unless recalled or until the Act 94 maps are used to elect a new assembly. As a result, he is subject to recall in District 63—the “district which the incumbent represents” under the Wisconsin Constitution.

This is reinforced by another express tenet of the Wisconsin Constitution—Art IV Sec 4, which provides in pertinent part—

The members of the assembly shall be chosen biennially, by single districts, on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday of November in even-numbered years, by the qualified electors of the several districts...

In other words, the current assembly was chosen in 2022, with the next to be chosen this year. The one elected in 2022 represents the “several districts” that elected the individual members. Unless recalled, those members, including Speaker Vos, have a constitutional right to hold office until the next election, representing the district that elected them. In turn, the people who elected the individual members have a constitutional right to have that person represent the district unless and until the member is recalled.

This axiom is further validated by subsection (3) of WI Const art XIII Sec 12 which provides—

(3) The incumbent shall continue to perform the duties of the office until the recall election results are officially declared.

The Wisconsin Constitution is clear—Speaker Vos will continue to hold “the office” of District 63 representative until the recall election results are officially declared, or the next assembly is chosen. He is the “incumbent” subject to recall by the “qualified voters” of that district.

WI Const art XIII Sec 12 goes on to provide the constitutional mandate the Commission must follow related to recall elections—

(2) The filing officer with whom the recall petition is filed shall call a recall election for the Tuesday of the 6th week after the date of filing the petition or, if that Tuesday is a legal holiday, on the first day after that Tuesday which is not a legal holiday.

If a recall petition for Speaker Vos meeting the constitutional criteria is filed with the Commission—the “filing officer” with whom a recall petition relating to an assembly member is filed—the Commission “shall” call a recall election in the “district the incumbent represents.” A valid recall petition will have signatures from qualified electors representing “twenty-five percent of the vote cast for the office of governor at the last preceding election” in District 63. If presented, the Commission has no choice but to call a recall election in that same district.

The authority of the Wisconsin Constitution has been described as follows—

...the Constitution is the supreme law of the state. If the Legislature passes an act which is in contravention of the Constitution and a citizen asserts a right under the Constitution denied him by the act of the Legislature, of necessity the court must determine which controls—the Constitution or the act of the Legislature. It cannot determine the rights of parties otherwise. From the beginning the provisions of the Constitution have been held to be supreme and therefore controlling.

Gibson Auto Co. v. Finnegan, 217 Wis. 401, 406-07, 259 N.W. 420 (Wis. 1935). As mandated by the supreme law of the state, the qualified electors of District 63 have a right to recall the incumbent member of the assembly that currently represents them. That is Speaker Robin J. Vos.

Further, the decision in Clarke v. WEC 23 AP 1399 does not impugn the constitutional right to pursue a recall of Speaker Vos in District 63. The Wisconsin Supreme Court enjoined the use of the maps adopted in the matter Johnson v. WEC, 2022 WI 19, ¶ 3, 401 Wis. 2d 198, 972 N.W.2d 559. It stated it was doing so “for all future elections” and that “as such, remedial maps must be adopted prior to the 2024 elections.” Clarke v. WEC 23 AP 1399, ¶ 77.

However, the constitutional question before the Wisconsin Supreme Court in Clarke was not whether under WI Const art XIII Sec 12 a member of the Assembly may be recalled utilizing the same district map that guided the member’s election. It was—

When legislative districts are composed of separate, detached parts, do they consist of "contiguous territory"?

Id., ¶ 13. The Court concluded the answer was no and held that “remedial maps must be adopted in time for the fall primary in August 2024.” Id. ¶ 56.

But that did not mean that all elections prior to the fall primary in August 2024 were invalidated. In fact, the Court specifically refused to order relief requested in the form of a writ quo warranto invalidating the results of the 2022 state senate elections. Id. ¶ 3. The petitioners never even requested such relief in relation to the assembly elections of 2022. Clarke did not invalidate any previous elections, did not remove any incumbent from office, and did not affect the right of any electorate to recall an official representing any assembly district per the tenets of the Wisconsin Constitution.²

Petitioner circulated the petition in District 63 and has presented a timely petition containing sufficient valid signatures of qualified electors to mandate a recall election in that district. Should the Commission fail to call such an election when presented with a valid petition, that would be a violation of the constitutional rights of not only the Petitioner, but every other qualified elector signing the Petition, and arguably those who should be allowed to vote to retain Speaker Vos in a recall election.

² Further, as Chairman Millis aptly pointed out at the April 11, 2024 hearing relating to the first recall petition, the Wisconsin Supreme Court does not, and will not reach a constitutional question if it is possible to decide a case on other grounds. Labor and Farm Party v. Elections Bd., State of Wis., 117 Wis.2d 351, 354, 344 N.W.2d 177 (1984).

B. Vos cites no Controlling or Persuasive Authority that the Wisconsin Constitution should be ignored.

The Wisconsin Constitution is supreme over any Attorney General Opinion. The caselaw relating to nomination papers is inapplicable, and cannot supersede the constitution, either. Finally, why a race for State Senate, over which no one has disputed which maps to utilize, has any bearing on this matter is not explained or justified in any way by Speaker Vos. We are dealing with a constitutional right. Those rights cannot be waved away by tenuous legal arguments to non-controlling law.

Further, the Attorney General opinion to which Speaker Vos refers is inapposite. That opinion was based on the effect of the holding in Wisconsin State AFL-CIO v. Elections Bd., 543 F. Supp. 630 (E.D. Wis. 1982). As Speaker Vos notes, in that case the Court-ordered redistricting plan was in place and ordered to be used for all elections after June 17, 1982. The date of the Opinion is August 19, 1982. The Opinion was merely stating that, because the new redistricting plan was in place and ordered to be used for all elections going forward, that no recall election could utilize the old maps.

However, here the districts identified in 2023 Act 94 do not take effect until the fall election. There will be no "incumbents" in any of those legislative districts until they are sworn into office in January of 2025. The incumbents in the Assembly represent the Districts that elected them, and unlike in the scenario created the by Wisconsin State AFL-CIO case, there is no new legislative district in place currently that it can be said

Speaker Vos represents other than the one by which he was elected. Any recall election is to be held in District 63.

C. The Recall Election May not be in District 33 as the District does not exist, yet.

Petitioner agrees that no recall can be held in District 33. Although he disagrees that any such bar is due to a paperwork failure. It is because, as is identified above, that district has yet to take effect. As a result, there can be no recall election held in that district. Although the “new maps” are being used for the Senate District 4 special election, no one has challenged their use. Use of the new maps would be improper in this matter and a recall election cannot be held in the “new” District 33.

III. SPEAKER VOS’S CHALLENGES TO SIGNATURES ARE IMPROPER AND INEFFECTUAL.

A. The Affidavit of Matthew M. Fernholz is Ineffectual as Supporting Evidence.

Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(h) requires that a challenge to a recall petition be supported by “affidavit or other supporting evidence.” (emphasis added) Affidavits must contain “evidentiary facts, of which the affiant has personal knowledge.” Hopper v. City of Madison, 79 Wis.2d 120, 130, 256 N.W.2d 139 (1977). The Affidavit of Matthew M. Fernholz does neither and provides no evidence upon which the Commission may rely.

The Fernholz Affidavit makes no effort to establish his personal knowledge of any fact averred therein. In it he states that “Exhibit 1 is a spreadsheet of all signers who, upon information and belief, do not reside in what used to be 63rd Assembly District.” However, Fernholz does not explain how that information was derived, nor how it is based on his personal knowledge in any way. Further, he states that the exhibit contains persons that “upon information and belief” do not reside in District 63. However, affidavits cannot be made on “information and belief” as discussed by the Wisconsin Supreme Court—

The facts shown by an opposing affidavit upon information and belief are generally not deemed sufficient to raise a jury question against positive contradictory evidentiary facts established by an affidavit of one who has personal knowledge of such facts. An affidavit on information and belief is an anomaly. It is not an affirmation on knowledge. It is not proof which would be admitted in evidence on a [7 Wis.2d 291] trial of the issue. The most such an affidavit does is to affirm that the affiant was informed and believes a fact to be true. The proof of the fact is not within the affidavit. Facts are established on knowledge, not on information and belief.

McChain v. City of Fond Du Lac, 7 Wis.2d 286, 290-91, 96 N.W.2d 607 (1959). Therefore, the Fernholz Affidavit is ineffective to act as supporting evidence for any challenge to signatures that purportedly are from electors outside of District 63.

The remainder of the Affidavit is ineffective for failure to establish personal knowledge as to any fact contained therein or in any exhibit. As such it must be disregarded in evaluating the Petition or any challenge thereto.

B. Even if accepted, the Evidence provided via the Fernholz Affidavit does not sufficiently reduce the number of Signatures below the necessary Threshold.

The Commission has certified that Petitioner must submit 6,850 valid signatures to trigger a recall in District 63. The Petition contains 9,080 signatures. Speaker Vos states that of those, “nearly 2,000 were from outside of District 63. However, of the 1,921 identified by Speaker Vos as being outside the District in Exhibit 1 to the Fernholz Affidavit, 241 of them were not included in the Petition. These signatures were “crossed out” prior to submission, and as such were not included in the initial total. Affidavit of John Von Haden, ¶¶ 10-12, Ex. B.

That leaves 1,680 signatures challenged as being outside of District 63. Of those, Petitioner’s expert has identified 89 signatories that listed addresses within District 63.

Von Haden Aff., ¶¶ 4-9, Ex. A. Mr. Von Haden details his process and the facts relied upon for this assertion in his affidavit.

Speaker Vos then identifies a purported 412 “duplicate signatures” in Exhibit 3 to the Fernholz Affidavit. Of those, however, two of them were “crossed out” signatures and not included in the Petition. In addition, 17 of the purported duplicate signatures are not for various reasons identified by Mr. Von Hade, including the fact that a “duplicate” was already crossed out, they were already challenged as being outside District 63, they were otherwise already rejected or challenged and that they are not duplicates at all. Von Haden Aff., ¶¶ 13-17, Ex. C.

Finally, Speaker Vos identifies 63 signatures with address issues in Fernholz Affidavit Exhibit 4. Of those, however, five were found to be signatures that were already crossed off, and twenty-eight were found by Mr. Von Haden as having sufficient information to identify the residence listed. Von Haden Aff., ¶¶ 18-24, Ex. D.

In total, of those purportedly challenged buy Speaker Vos through Exhibits 1, 3, and 4, 248 were not included in the Petition, and 134 were found to be valid signatures. Thus, reducing the number of challenged signatures from 2,396 to 2014. The signatures containing “bad dates” as identified in Exhibit 5 to the Fernholz Affidavit will be subject to amendment if it is found that there was an error in the date printed by the circulator. But for now, Petitioner will accept those (thirty-five of them) for argument’s sake and therefore the number of valid signatures remaining after all challenges based on the Fernholz Affidavit is 7,031.

C. The Affidavit of Ty Mrioued Does not Provide Evidence that supports striking any Pages of the Petition.

Ty Mrioued, a paralegal at the law firm representing Speaker Vos, attempts to introduce evidence of a violation of Wis. stat. 8.40(2) via his affidavit. However, again none of the statements made therein provide any evidence upon which the Commission can rely to strike any pages submitted by any circulator.

First, all of Mr. Miroued's assertions regarding the lack of an apartment number are inapposite. The statute does not require that an apartment number be listed. Wis. Stat. § 8.40(2) requires the "street and number." It mentions nothing about a particular apartment (which are often designated by letters and would not fall under the category of "street and number." The lack of a listed apartment number for a circulator is not a reason to strike any pages.

Next, he asserts that certain addresses do not exist, or that based upon his internet searches, the circulator actually resides somewhere else. However, each of these statements is hearsay. Mr. Mrioued can testify he conducted the searches, but he cannot rely on the results as evidence of the truth of the results. Further, he provides no detail as to the search terms he used, nor does he explain why he only used certain search engines and how they may be reliable. There is simply no basis to accept any statement of Mr. Mrioued as evidence in relation to the residence of any of the circulators. Also, Mr. Mrioued's recollection of his conversation with an El Paso county official is clearly hearsay and not evidence of the truth of what he states in his affidavit.

Finally, although Speaker Vos breathlessly asserts that "felons" acted as circulators, Mrioued does not provide any evidence whatsoever that any circulator has been convicted of a felony aside from a Wisconsin Circuit Court Access record relating to circulator Jonathan Korte. While, again, this is not “evidence” as it is hearsay, even assuming it were, according to the WCCA system, Mr. Korte’s conviction in 1999 resulted in a 9-month jail sentence, that was stayed.³ He was removed from the sex offender registry by Court Order in 2010.⁴ There is no basis to conclude that Mr. Korte is not a qualified elector based on being a felon.

D. There is no basis for the Commission to strike Signatures gathered after May 26, 2024.

Speaker Vos’s argument that there is a “60-day circulation window” (page 11 of Challenge) is without basis altogether. As he notes, although section 9.10 requires a petition to be filed within the “60th day after registration” Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d). However, he acknowledges that section 9.10(2)(d) is modified as follows—

When computing time provided by statute, “[t]he time within which an act is to be done... shall be computed by excluding the first day and including the last; and when any such time is expressed in hours the whole of Sunday and of any legal holiday, from midnight to midnight, shall be excluded.” Wis. Stat. § 990.001(4)(a). “If the last day within which an act is to be done . . . falls on a Sunday or legal holiday the act may be done . . . on the next secular day.” § 990.01(4)(b).

(Challenge, p. 10) There’s no dispute that the 60-day time period for filing the petition was modified so that May 28, 2024 was the proper filing date. As such, the window for gathering signatures was similarly modified.

Justice Prosser discussed the effect of the modification of a filing date for a recall petition on the date for signature gathering in a concurring opinion in State ex rel. Two

Second, supporters of a recall campaign have 60 days after registration to circulate and file their recall petitions. However, organizers of the Scott Walker recall petition shrewdly selected Tuesday, November 15, 2011, to register their recall efforts. Under Wis. Stat. § 990.001(4)(a), which deals with how time is computed under the Wisconsin Statutes, the first day is excluded in counting the 60 days. Under Wis. Stat. § 990.001(4)(c), if the deadline for filing a document is on a day when the filing office is closed, the filing “may be done on the next succeeding day that is not a Sunday or a legal holiday.” The Walker recall petition was due on January 14, 2012. However, January 14 was a Saturday, which meant that the petition did not have to be filed until Tuesday, January 17, because January 16 was a legal holiday (Martin Luther King's birthday). This gave the organizers 64 days to circulate and file the Walker, Kleefisch, Fitzgerald, Wanggaard, Moulton, and Galloway recall petitions.

Further, Racine Recall was informed by WEC attorney Brandon Hunzicker via email that it could circulate petitions and gather signatures up until the time of filing, if necessary.

There is no basis to strike any signatures that occurred after May 26, 2024.

E. There is no Evidence of Forgeries of any Signature.

Speaker Vos submits the opinion of Eileen Page that some of the signatures provided were “forged” by circulators. However, her opinion is fatally flawed and regardless is not evidence of any signatures being forged by any circulator in any way.

First, her opinion is qualified as she did not examine any originals of any documents, nor was she provided any other examples of handwriting of any of the circulators. She could not conclude that any individual forged any signature., She could only say that, in her opinion, certain signatures looked similar.

Regardless, she does not identify at any point which signatures she claims are “forged.” The only opinion is that on some circulator sheets there is some evidence that points to potential problems. There is absolutely no conclusion that any particular signature was forged by any circulator, or anyone else. As such her "opinion" is baseless and provides no evidence to challenge any signature.

F. No one was "misled," and even if so that does not affect the validity of the Petition.

Speaker Vos introduces affidavits of three persons who he claims were "misled" about the Petition. However, only two signed it (Kent Schneider and Jessica Rodriguez). The third, Leann Pomeroy, did not sign the petition. Neither Schneider nor Rodriguez identify the person that purportedly approached and "misled" them. And, again, any such statement is hearsay and not "evidence." Further, the affidavit of Shelia Berkley provides no evidence of anything as there's no person identified that contends that a) they were "misled" about the purpose of the Petition; and b) signed it.

Even assuming that Schneider and Rodriguez were "misled" and there are grounds to exclude their signatures, it ultimately would not affect the total of valid signatures on the Petition. As is noted above, there are at least 7,031 valid signatures. Removing those two, that leaves 7,069. More than enough to call a recall election in District 63.

G. There is no basis for an Evidentiary Hearing.

Speaker Vos complains of the "tight timelines" to provide a response as a basis to conduct a post-facto evidentiary hearing. However, this ignores he could have asked for an extension of the timelines for "good cause" pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 9.10(3)(b). The fact he did not is a waiver of any request for an evidentiary hearing.

First, as is noted above Speaker Vos has failed to file a challenge to the Petition. Therefore, he has no right to a hearing. Second, if there really was an issue wherein Speaker Vos just needed a little more time to develop his evidence supporting his challenge, he could have gotten it from the Court. As is demonstrated above, Speaker Vos has no good evidence that there was any fraud or criminality, or that there is not a valid number of signatures to call a recall election. He had his chance to present his challenge to the Petition within 10 days of its filing and he decided, apparently not to do so. The “evidence” he has submitted is insufficient to challenge the Petition and a recall election must be held.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons above, the Petition must be certified, and a recall election called for Speaker Vos in the 63rd Assembly District.

In the Matter of:

Petition for Recall
Speaker Robin J. Vos
Filed May 28, 2024

AFFIDAVIT OF JOHN VON HADEN

STATE OF WISCONSIN)
) SS.
COUNTY OF WAUKESHA)

I, John Von Haden, being first duly sworn on oath, depose and state the following:

1. I am an adult over 18 years of age and resident of the State of Wisconsin.
2. I worked as a professional computer and data management consultant for over 35 years. I worked for IBM for ten years, Compuware for approximately 10 years, and for the remainder of my career as an independent contractor. In my professional career I specialized in assisting with management of large data sets relating to persons—specifically genealogy. Genealogy data sets often involve handwritten information containing spelling errors and legibility issues. I have also assisted political organizations in researching and cataloging large data sets relevant to voters. I have a B.S. in Computer Science from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.
3. I have personally reviewed Exhibit 1 to the Affidavit of Matthew M. Fernholz (“Exhibit 1”).

4. Exhibit 1 purports to list spreadsheet of all signers who, upon information and belief, do not reside in what used to be 63rd Assembly District.”

5. I have personally checked all names listed on Exhibit 1 to determine whether the address listed is within District 63.

6. To check the addresses I did the following—

a. Entered the addresses into .csv file, and plotted them using google maps.

b. From that, I took the addresses that appeared to be within District 63 and entered them into the search function found at <https://legis.wisconsin.gov/assembly/63/vos/resources/district-map/>.

7. Attached as Exhibit A is a spreadsheet I personally created with the following information I gathered from the above process:

a. The name and address as stated in Exhibit 1;

b. The Petition page of the particular signature;

c. The Petition line of the particular signature;

d. The actual name of the signator listed on the Petition;

e. The actual street address, municipality and state of the signator listed on the Petition.

8. I note that Exhibit 1 appears to be the product of an artificial intelligence program. As a result the addresses listed as not within District 63 were often misspelled or had other machine-translation issues wherein the address listed on Exhibit 1 was not the same as the address listed on the actual Petition.

9. For instance, the address for signator Courtney Thompson is listed as “Mackie Ct.” on Exhibit 1 when on the Petition the written address is “Marie Ct.”

10. In my review of Exhibit 1 I also checked to see if any signators listed therein were “crossed out” and thus not included in the Petition as submitted.

11. Attached as Exhibit B is a spreadsheet I personally created based on that review that lists 241 signatures that were “crossed out” and thus were not included in the Petition.

12. Because they were not included in the Petition, any “challenge” to these signatures would be “double dipping.” In other words, Speaker Vos is seeking to reduce the overall number of signatures by a number that includes signatures that were never submitted in the first place.

13. I also personally reviewed Exhibit 3 to the Affidavit of Matthew M. Fernholz (“Exhibit 3”).

14. Exhibit 3 purports to list all signatures that are “duplicate signatures.”

15. In my review of Exhibit 3 I noted two signatures that were being challenged that were actually “crossed off” prior to submission and not included in the Petition.

16. As such the same “double dipping” issue is present with those two signatures of Exhibit 3 as is present with the signatures of Exhibit 1 I described in paragraphs 10-12.

17. I also discovered seventeen other signatures that were not, in fact, duplicate signatures based on the reasons stated in Exhibit C.

18. I also personally reviewed Exhibit 4 to the Affidavit of Matthew M. Fernholz (“Exhibit 4”).

19. Exhibit 4 purports to list “all signers who provided incomplete address or residency information.”

20. I personally checked all names listed on Exhibit 4 to determine whether the address listed is within District 63.

21. To check the addresses I did the following—

- a. I checked the addresses against online informational sites such as google maps and whitepages.com to assist in determining the actual address listed if, in fact there was incomplete information provided. I also checked the addresses against a copy of the voter roll from District 63 obtained from the Wisconsin Elections Commission.
- b. I then entered the addresses that appeared to be within District 63 into a .csv file, and plotted them using google maps.
- c. From that, I took the addresses that appeared to be within District 63 and entered them into the search function found at <https://legis.wisconsin.gov/assembly/63/vos/resources/district-map/>.

22. In my review of Exhibit 4 I noted five signatures that were being challenged that were actually “crossed off” prior to submission and not included in the Petition.

23. As such the same “double dipping” issue is present with those five signatures of Exhibit 4 as is present with the signatures of Exhibit 1 I described in paragraphs 10-12.

24. Attached as Exhibit D is a spreadsheet I personally created with the following information I gathered from the above process:

- a. The challenge listed in Exhibit 4;
- b. The elector information listed in Exhibit 4;
- c. The Petition page of the particular signature;

- d. The Petition line of the particular signature
- e. The actual name of the signator listed on the Petition;
- f. The actual street address, municipality and state of the signator listed on the Petition.
- g. My reasons why I do not believe the challenge to the signature is valid.

In RE: the matter of:

May 28, 2024 Recall Petition Filed against
Representative Vos

REPRESENTATIVE ROBIN VOS' VERIFIED REPLY TO PETITIONER'S REBUTTAL

ARGUMENT

I. The Recall Challenge Was Properly Verified

A. Robin Vos Was Not Required to Sign a Verification Page

Wisconsin's recall procedures are set forth in Wis. Stat. § 9.10. Section 9.10(3)(b) provides that “[w]ithin 10 days after the petition is offered for filing, the officer against whom the petition is filed may file a written challenge with the official [i.e., WEC], specifying any alleged insufficiency.” The only reference to “verification” in the statute is in § 9.10(2)(f), which states that “[t]he filing officer or agency shall review a verified challenge to a recall petition if it is made prior to certification.” Nowhere does the statute say that the elected official who is the target of the recall must verify the challenge. Rather, the term “filed” is used repeatedly, which is equivalent to a legal submission from an attorney.

The Legislature knows how to specify who must sign and submit a verification page. Indeed, earlier in Chapter 9 the Legislature mandates that a recount petition must be brought in the form of a “verified petition” by either a candidate for office or a voter in a referendum. Wis. Stat. § 9.01(1)(a)1. Other election law statutes expressly state who must sign a “sworn” or “verified” “complaint” or “petition” for different election law violations. See, e.g., Wis. Stat. § 5.05(2m)(a), (c)2. (“any person” may file a “sworn complaint” alleging a violation of Chapter 5 to 10, or 12); § 5.06(1) (an “elector of a jurisdiction or district” may file a “sworn complaint” against an election official); § 5.061(1) (“any person” may file a “written, verified complaint” that a violation of the Help America Vote Act has occurred); § 5.08 (“any elector” may file a “verified petition” with the local district attorney alleging election law violations by an election official); § 5.081 (“any person” may file a “verified petition” with the attorney general alleging a violation of the Voting Rights Act).

Snorek cites to the requirements of Wis. Admin. Code EL 20.03, but that section clearly references complaints, and not challenges. This is shown in multiple places. To begin with, the form complaint in WEC’s Code suggests that the “complainant” set “forth in detail the facts that establish probable cause to believe that a violation occurred.” EL 20.03(2). It goes on to describe how to allege specific violations of election law against an individual(s):

The complaint shall specify the statutory basis for the complaint and shall set forth the facts which are alleged to establish probable cause. Information which may establish probable cause includes allegations that set forth which persons are involved; what those persons are alleged to have done; where the activity is believed to have occurred; when the activity is alleged to have occurred and who are the witnesses to the events.

EL 20.03(3). These sorts of allegations are inapplicable to recall challenges.

Indeed as WEC will recall, it previously concluded that Vos’ first recall challenge could not form the basis for a complaint relating to election law violations, concluding that such a complaint was a separate, stand-alone process:

Speaker Vos asks that the Commission make appropriate criminal referrals for election fraud and alleges that the circulators signed the names discussed above or misrepresented the petition. For the Commission to make any referrals regarding election fraud, it would need to receive a Wis. Stat. § 5.05 complaint making a specific allegation against a specific individual. The Commission cannot make a referral regarding any allegation contained in the challenge unless it receives such a complaint. If it receives any such complaint, its considerations would occur in closed session.

(WEC Apr. 11, 2024 Open Session Materials, p. 11) (Emphasis added). As such, Vos submitted a separate complaint on May 23 against Snorek and other circulators.

It is thus clear that the form for an election law complaint under EL 20.03 does not apply to the form one uses when filing a challenge to a recall. But even if WEC were to conclude that the form of EL 20.03 had to be followed in recall challenges, such an interpretation would add requirements to a recall challenge which are not found in the statute. As noted above, Wis. Stat. § 9.10 does not require a recall challenge to be verified by the target of the recall. “No agency may promulgate a rule which conflicts with state law.” Wis. Stat. § 227.10(2). This is because administrative agencies do not have powers superior to those of the Legislature. Debeck v. Wis. Dep't of Nat. Res., 172 Wis. 2d 382, 387-88, 493 N.W.2d 234 (Ct. App. 1992). As such, when “a conflict arises between a statute and an administrative rule, the statute prevails.” Seider v. O'Connell, 2000 WI 76, ¶72, 236 Wis. 2d 211, 612 N.W.2d 659.

B. Vos in Good Faith Relied on Advice From WEC’s Chief Legal Counsel

During the week of June 3, Vos was traveling, thus making it impossible for him to secure a Wisconsin notary public to notarize a verification page. (Vos Dec., ¶3.) Anticipating this issue, undersigned counsel called WEC Chief Legal Counsel Jim Witecha on June 5 to inquire as to whether Vos could submit an unnotarized “declaration” rather than a notarized “verification.” (Fernholz Aff., ¶2.) Attorney Witecha responded that Vos’ counsel could submit the verification page on Vos’ behalf, and that WEC routinely had accepted verification pages signed by counsel for the candidates.¹ (Id.) Relying on this advice, Vos submitted his verified challenge on June 7

https://elections.wi.gov/sites/default/files/legacy/2022-04/Response_Weidner%2520et%2520al.%2520v.%2520Coolidge%2520II.pdf

with his counsel verifying the arguments and allegations. (Id.) As such, WEC should be equitably estopped from ruling that Vos' verification was insufficient. Wosinski v. Advance Cast Stone Co., 2017 WI App 51, ¶40, 377 Wis. 2d 596, 901 N.W.2d 797 (Elements of equitable estoppel are: “(1) action or non-action, (2) on the part of one against whom estoppel is asserted, (3) which induces reasonable reliance thereon by the other, either in action or non-action, and (4) which is to his or her detriment.”) (citations omitted).

Regardless, Vos has reviewed both the challenge and this reply to Snorek's rebuttal and agrees with the contents of both briefs. Accordingly, and out of an abundance of caution, Vos submits a verification under penalty of perjury attesting to both submissions.

C. Snorek Has Committed the Same Alleged Violations He Accuses Vos of Committing

We can tell Snorek's heart is not really in his lead argument, as he himself has failed to comply with the administrative code provisions he contends are applicable. Indeed, Snorek did not submit a verification page in his rebuttal. Nor for that matter did his attorney. Rather, Snorek's counsel submitted his signature twice, with the second signature containing a notary block. But nothing was sworn to, and nowhere does his rebuttal include the language in Wis. Admin. Code EL 20.03(5), which Snorek contends is mandatory.

EL 20.03(1) provides that “[a]ll complaints, answers and replies shall be in writing and shall be sworn to before a person authorized to administer oaths.” The standard form for such a verification is set forth EL 20.03(2), which applies to a “complaint, answer, or reply.” It notes that the terms “complaint,” “answer,” or “reply” should be substituted depending on the type of filing, meaning that it obviously not apply solely to complaints. EL 20.03(2), n.1. If Snorek is going to equate “complaint” to a “challenge,” then logically “answer” is the equivalent of a “rebuttal.” As such, Snorek’s rebuttal failed to comply with EL 20.03.

Snorek also bemoans that Vos violated EL 20.03(6) because he received Vos’ filings via e-mail rather than personal service or U.S. mail. Conveniently, Snorek leaves out the second part of this section: “Each party shall mail to, or personally serve on, each other party any subsequent pleading before filing the pleading with the commission and shall certify to the service on the pleading or in a cover letter filed with the pleading.” Id. Snorek did not serve his rebuttal on counsel for Vos, counsel for Vos has not received the rebuttal via U.S. mail, and Snorek did not submit a cover letter indicating how he served his rebuttal on Vos. (Fernholz Aff., ¶3.) Instead, counsel for Vos received the filings via e-mail from Attorney Brandon Hunzicker late in the afternoon on June 12.² (Id.)

Under Snorek’s interpretation of EL 20.03, his rebuttal is deficient.

D. Regardless of the Verification Page Submission, WEC is Required to Conduct its Own Review to Determine the Sufficiency of the Recall Petition

Snorek contends that WEC has no basis “to conduct an independent examination of the Petition to determine the sufficiency of signatures.” (Pet. Br. at 4.) Under Snorek’s view, “the Petition is presumed valid,” and absent any challenge, WEC is required to accept every signature, ² EL 20.05(4) also imposes a five-page single-space limit on briefs and arguments. Vos moved WEC for relief from this rule, but it is not known if Snorek did as well. (Fernholz Aff., ¶4, Ex. 1.) If not, this would be yet another code violation by Snorek.

Snorek also contends that EL 20.03(4) applies, such that Vos was required to list “the last known address of the complainant and the respondent.” (Pet. Br. at p. 3.) But there is no “complainant” or “respondent” in a recall challenge, so this provision does not apply.

no questions asked. (Id.) Could it really be that Snorek could turn in 9,000 signatures for “Mickey Mouse” with an address of “Mickey Mouse’s Clubhouse” and WEC would be compelled to certify the signatures, absent a challenge? In a word, “no.”

Under Wis. Stat. § 9.10(3)(b), “[w]ithin 31 days after the petition is offered for filing, the official with whom the petition is offered for filing shall determine by careful examination whether the petition on its face is sufficient and so state in a certificate attached to the petition.” (Emphasis added.) Even after a petition is amended, WEC has five days to “carefully examine the face of the petition to determine sufficiency and shall attach a certificate stating the findings.” Id. (Emphasis added). In other words, every issue raised by Vos in his challenge—the proper district to hold the recall, the number of signatures in the district, whether circulators submitted complete address information, whether signatures were done within the 60-day window, etc.—must be considered by WEC to determine whether Snorek’s recall was sufficient.

II. Because the Wisconsin Supreme Court Enjoined Any Elections From Occurring in the Old 63rd Assembly District, the Recall May Not Proceed

In December 2023, the Wisconsin Supreme Court enjoined the use of the then-current maps in all future elections. Clarke v. Wisconsin Elections Comm’n, 2023 WI 79, ¶¶56, 77, 410 Wis. 2d 1, 998 N.W.2d 70. No party to that case has asked to lift the injunction, nor has anyone sought to intervene to request the injunction be lifted. More importantly, the old districts that were enjoined in Clarke were repealed when the new legislative districts were signed into law. See 2023 Wis. Act 94 (published February 20, 2024).³

³ Because the Act was published on February 20, 2024, and did not expressly prescribe the time it would take effect, it became effective the next day, February 21. Wis. Stat. § 991.11.

The Wisconsin Supreme Court has a duty to enforce the rights protected under the Wisconsin Constitution. State v. Halverson, 2021 WI 7, ¶23, 395 Wis. 2d 385, 953 N.W.2d 847 (citing State v. Jennings, 2002 WI 44, ¶¶18, 38, 252 Wis. 2d 228, 647 N.W.2d 142) (“While we must follow the United States Supreme Court on matters of federal law, we have an independent responsibility to interpret and apply the Wisconsin Constitution.”). As such, the Wisconsin Supreme Court “is the final arbiter of questions arising under the Wisconsin Constitution” and will “faithfully adjudicate any such questions in appropriate circumstances, should that become necessary.” Jensen v. Wisconsin Elections Bd., 2002 WI 13, ¶25, 249 Wis. 2d 706, 639 N.W.2d 537.

In Clarke, the supreme court was asked to determine whether the senate and assembly districts violated Article IV, Sections 4 and 5 of the Wisconsin Constitution that require state legislative districts to consist of contiguous territory. The exact question that was before the supreme court is not relevant to whether old or new legislative maps apply to a recall election prior to the 2024 general election. The important takeaway from Clarke is that court held that the then-current legislative districts were unconstitutional, and the court enjoined the Wisconsin Elections Commission from using those legislative maps in future elections. Clarke, 410 Wis. 2d 1, ¶3. Moreover, the court urged the Legislature to pass legislation creating new maps prior to the 2024 elections. Id., ¶4. The Legislature did just that.

Pursuant to Wis. Const. Art. IV, § 3, “[a]t its first session after each enumeration made by the authority of the United States, the legislature shall apportion and district anew the members of the senate and assembly, according to the number of inhabitants.” Members of the assembly are chosen biennially in even-numbered years by qualified electors. Wis. Const. Art. IV, § 4. Regarding recalls of elective officers, the Wisconsin Constitution provides, in pertinent part:

The qualified electors of the state, of any congressional, judicial or legislative district or of any county may petition for the recall of any incumbent elective officer after the first year of the term for which the incumbent was elected, by filing a petition with the filing officer with whom the nomination petition to the office in the primary is filed, demanding the recall of the incumbent.

(1) The recall petition shall be signed by electors equalling at least twenty-five percent of the vote cast for the office of governor at the last preceding election, in the state, county or district which the incumbent represents.

(2) The filing officer with whom the recall petition is filed shall call a recall election for the Tuesday of the 6th week after the date of filing the petition or, if that Tuesday is a legal holiday, on the first day after that Tuesday which is not a legal holiday.

(3) The incumbent shall continue to perform the duties of the office until the recall election results are officially declared.

Wis. Const. Art. XIII, § 12(1)-(3).

There are no Wisconsin cases that interpret these constitutional provisions under similar circumstances. In other words, neither the Wisconsin Supreme Court nor the Wisconsin Court of Appeals has considered what legislative maps apply to a recall election that occurs when new legislative maps have been enacted after the previous maps were found to be unconstitutional. However, the state attorney general has authored opinions on similar issues. See 71 Op. Att’y Gen. 157 (1982); 72 Wis. Op. Att’y Gen. 172 (1983). It is well established that opinions of the attorney general are not binding as precedent, but they may be persuasive as to the meaning of the law. State v. Beaver Dam Area Dev. Corp., 2008 WI 90, ¶37, 312 Wis. 2d 84, 752 N.W.2d 295; Kocken v. Wisconsin Council 40, AFSCME, AFL-CIO, 2007 WI 72, ¶53, 301 Wis. 2d 266, 732 N.W.2d 828 (“We gain guidance in the instant case about the proper application of the criteria defining the constitutional and non-constitutional powers, rights, and duties of the office of sheriff from prior court decisions that address the constitutional prerogatives of the office of sheriff, as well as from the published opinions of the Wisconsin attorney general.”).

As previously discussed, following the 1980 census, the Wisconsin Legislature and the Governor were unable to agree on new legislative district boundaries. The matter went to litigation before a three-judge federal panel, and on February 22, 1982, the court “entered an order declaring the current reapportionment scheme unconstitutional and enjoining the defendant state Elections Board from preparing for or administering any elections using the current Senate and Assembly districts.” Wisconsin State AFL-CIO v. Elections Bd., 543 F. Supp. 630, 632 (E.D. Wis. 1982). The court subsequently dissolved the injunction and entered a final order with new legislative maps. Id. at 639. The court’s order was to “be effective for the 1982 legislative elections and thereafter until such time as a valid constitutional redistricting plan is enacted into law.” Id.

Attorney General Bronson La Follette was asked to issue a formal opinion on how the old district map would be applied to elections held before November 1982. The Attorney General issued a formal opinion on August 19, 1982, which provided that the electors of the new district were required to sign petitions to recall a holdover senator, and that only the electors of the new district were entitled to vote in a special election to fill a vacancy in the office of a holdover senator. 71 Op. Att’y Gen. 157, at *1. The Attorney General opined, “the old districts cannot be utilized for purposes of nomination and election after June 17, 1982. For purposes of nomination and election, the new legislative district lines became effective that date.” Id. The Attorney General further stated that “neither recall elections nor elections to fill a vacancy can be based on an apportionment plan which has been found unconstitutional.” Id., at *3.

Regarding which district lines to use, the Attorney General provided:

In regard to recall petitions, the state constitution provides that ‘[s]uch petition shall be signed by electors . . . in the . . . district from which such officer is to be recalled.’ It does not require signatures by electors in the district from which the officer was elected although the districts would in the usual event be identical.

Id. The Attorney General concluded that “for the purposes of nominations, regular, recall and special elections, mass mailings and indistrict travel, the effective date of the new district lines is June 1, 1982, the date of the court order.” Id. In the Attorney General’s opinion, that effective date applied to “both [] holdover senators and to incumbents in those districts where elections [were] scheduled for the Fall of 1982.” Id. (Emphasis original).

In 1983, Thomas A. Loftus, Chairperson of the Assembly Committee on Organization, requested an opinion from Attorney General Bronson La Follette on the effect of 1983 Wisconsin Act 29 on individual legislators currently holding office, particularly, the legislative districts that were renumbered or whose boundaries were changed by Act 29. 72 Wis. Op. Att’y Gen. 172, at *1. The legislative elections in the November 1982 election were held in accordance with the judicially ordered plan from Wisconsin State AFL-CIO. Id. However, Act 29 created new maps for the 1984 elections. Id. at *2. The Attorney General issued a formal opinion on October 4, 1983, that answered the following questions thusly:

1. Does a legislator continue to represent, during the remainder of his or her term, all those persons within the election district from which he or she was elected?

2. Does a legislator, who currently resides in a district affected by Act 29, represent those persons within the district who were newly-placed there by Act 29?

The answer to your first question is no and the answer to your second question is yes . . .

3. Do the numbers assigned to [assembly] legislative districts have any relevance in determining who is represented by a specific legislator?

For the reasons stated above the answer is no. A legislator continues to represent the district from which he or she was elected, ‘chosen to represent,’ as altered with respect to boundaries and as renumbered.

Id. at *3-4. In other words, the changed boundaries effectively altered the district lines immediately, not just for the upcoming election.

The Attorney General noted that Wis. Const. Art. IV, § 3 “requires that ‘[a]t their first session after each enumeration made by the authority of the United States, the legislature shall apportion and district anew the members of the senate and assembly, according to the number of inhabitants . . .’” Id. “The Legislature responded to the federal court order issued in Wisconsin State AFL-CIO by enacting the reapportionment plan set forth in 1983 Wisconsin Act 29.” Id.

Accordingly, the Legislature, “within constitutional terms, [did] ‘apportion and district anew the members of the senate and assembly,’ and that it intended the incumbents elected from judicially ordered districts immediately serve the district from which they were elected as altered with respect to boundaries and as renumbered in the case of assembly districts.” Id. at *2 (emphasis original).

The Opinion further provided that:

No real importance can be given to the fact that the Assembly changed the numbers of assembly districts from those utilized under the court plan. It did not result from any legislative intent to reassign a member (an incumbent legislator) to a district other than that from which he or she was elected. It was a reassignment of a number only, to the district which had altered boundaries. The district remained the district from which he or she was elected as altered . . .

Id. at *3 (emphasis original).

The same reasoning from these Attorney General Opinions can be applied to the issue before WEC. Section 2 of 2023 Wis. Act 94 provides, as to “regular elections,” the new maps apply “to offices filled at the 2024 general election,” and as to “special or recall elections,” the new maps apply “to offices filled or contested concurrently with the 2024 general election.” The Legislature did, within constitutional terms, “apportion and district anew the members of the senate and assembly,” and it intended that incumbents elected from prior districts immediately serve the district from which they were elected as altered with respect to boundaries and as renumbered. Moreover, not only are the prior districts enjoined from further use, Section 1 of Act 94 expressly repealed Subchapter III of Chapter 4, which set forth the previous districts. As such, as of February 21, 2024, the only viable districts from which to hold an election were those created by Act 94.

III. Snorek Completely Ignores the Uncovered Fraud Which Was Committed by His Circulators

The first recall effort failed to get off the blocks, the result of a hapless collection effort carried on by out-of-state-felons who barely made any efforts to cover up their fraud. The second effort fares no better. Indeed, after Vos overturned the rock on this recall effort, the out-of-state circulators used by Snorek appear to have scampered away back home, offering nary a peep in response to serious allegations of election fraud.

Start with the eight circulators who list non-existent or false address information, a Class I felony. (Vos Br. at p. 8-9.) Snorek does not contend that Vos' allegations on these eight circulators are false. Rather, he disparages the Affidavit of Ty Mrioued, who provided a detailed description of his efforts to locate address information for the circulators. According to Snorek, Mrioued's affidavit is not credible because "Mr. Mrioued can testify he conducted the searches, but he cannot rely on the results as evidence of the truth of the results." (Pet. Br. at p. 13.) Of course, the Affidavit of Snorek's "expert" used the same methodology for conducting searches of addresses. But leaving that aside, it is no doubt true that Mrioued did not physically visit the addresses listed in Colorado, Pennsylvania, Illinois, California, and Arizona in the span of a week to verify whether Snorek's circulators were lying. One easy way of reconciling this dispute would be for Snorek to submit affidavits from these circulators that they do in fact reside where they swore they resided. But where are they?

Given the looming legal liability Snorek and his gang could be facing for their election law crimes, it was probably a wise move not to submit any sworn statements. But for purposes of this recall petition, they have conceded that Justin Gracier, John Adamson, Gabriela Brumar, Dax Brown, Doug Bricker, Gary Alan Feldman, Joshua Foss, and Michael Kim all violated Wis. Stat. § 8.40(2). See Charolais Breeding Ranches, Ltd. v. FPC Sec. Corp., 90 Wis. 2d 97, 109, 279 N.W.2d 493 (Ct. App. 1979) (unrebutted arguments are deemed conceded). Accordingly, every single nomination paper circulated by these individuals must be stricken.

As for the circulators who failed to provide an apartment number, rather than simply clarifying which apartment unit they reside at, Snorek ducks and meekly states that Wis. Stat. §

8.40(2) only a requires a “street and number.” (Pet. Br. at 13.) Because some apartment units are designated by “letters,” Snorek reasons an apartment number is not part of a “residence.” (Id.) This will not wash, as mail sent to an apartment building without a unit number designated will fail to be delivered.

Next, Snorek buries his head in the sand and covers his ears at the expert report of Eileen Page, who uncovered four circulators who forged circulation pages. Snorek claims that Page did not “identify at any point which signatures she claims are ‘forged’.” (Pet. Br. at 15.) In fact, Page went through in great detail which pages and lines she identified evidence of fraudulent signatures.

Wouldn’t the easiest response to this allegation have been to obtain affidavits from these four circulators attesting that they never forged any signatures? The lack of such a layup response is a figurative (and perhaps soon-to-be literal) indictment of these circulators. Accordingly, every petition circulated by Josias Andujar, Gail Golec, Vlad Litvin, and Larry Grafanakis should be stricken, or at the very least, subjected to an evidentiary hearing where they can appear and testify.

IV. The Second Recall Effort is Once Again Well Short of the Signature Requirement

Snorek has conceded that of the more than 9,000 signatures he submitted, only 7,029 are valid, giving him a razor-thin margin. But his numbers completely fail to address the serious fraud allegations against numerous circulators, thereby conceding the point. Supra. Once again, WEC should determine that Snorek has fallen short of the signature requirement in the recall.

Turning to the categories of challenges that Snorek actually addressed, we start with the out-of-district signatures. Snorek contends that Exhibit 1 to the Fernholz Affidavit may not be considered because the voter residency information was made “upon information and belief.” (Pet. Br. at 11.) But either a voter resides within the 63rd Assembly District or he does not. Snorek then concedes that, once crossed off signatures are removed, he submitted 1,680 signatures outside of the 63rd Assembly District. (Von Haden Aff., Ex. B.) Vos does not dispute that the crossed-off names should be factored out, but otherwise stands on his challenge to the signers in Fernholz Ex. 1 who were identified as outside the old 63rd Assembly District.

Vos identified 416 duplicate signatures in his challenge to the recall. Snorek, through Von Haden, contends that two of these duplicates were already crossed off, but does not tell us which ones. (Von Haden Aff., ¶14.) His affidavit goes on to state that he “also discovered seventeen other signatures that were not, in fact, duplicate signatures based on the reasons stated in Exhibit C.” (Id., ¶17.) But all this exhibit shows are 17 names and addresses lined up next to the same names and addresses. There is no explanation why these should not be struck as duplicates.

Aside from removal of duplicate strikes, Vos otherwise stands on his challenge to signers who provided incomplete address information for the reason set forth in Exhibit 4 of the Fernholz Affidavit. And Snorek failed to rehabilitate the 26 signatures which were dated after the circulator’s signature date, thereby conceding these should be stricken. See Charolais, 90 Wis. 2d at 109 (unrebutted arguments are deemed conceded).

Vos also reincorporates his position that signatures collected after May 26 are invalid for the reasons set forth in his challenge. Snorek’s only legal authority cited in support of his argument for counting signatures outside the 60-day window is a concurring opinion discussing an issue that was not before the supreme court. State ex rel. Two Unnamed Petitioners v. Peterson, 2015 WI 85, ¶173, 363 Wis. 2d 1, 866 N.W.2d 165 (Prosser, J., concurring). Snorek also contends that WEC Attorney Brandon Hunzicker e-mailed “Racine Recall” that signatures could be collected after May 26, but no affidavit or copy of the e-mail is provided in the filing. As such, this argument lacks any evidentiary basis.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, WEC should reject Snorek’s second recall petition.⁴

⁴ Snorek submits that his “Petition must be certified, and a recall election called for Tuesday, July 9, 2024.” (Pet. Br. at 1.) This request is indicative of the pell-mell approach of the recall effort. If WEC granted Snorek’s requested date, it would mean that nomination papers would have been due on June 11, 2024. See Wis. Stat. 8.50(3)(a) (nomination papers for special elections are due 28 days before the election). Snorek is thus asking for a recall election to be held without a candidate to oppose Vos.

AFFIDAVIT OF MATTHEW M. FERNHOLZ

STATE OF WISCONSIN)
) ss.
COUNTY OF WAUKESHA)

MATTHEW M. FERNHOLZ, being first duly sworn on oath, deposes and states as follows:

1. I am one of the attorneys for Representative Robin Vos and have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein.

2. On June 5, 2024, I spoke with WEC Chief Legal Counsel Jim Witecha. I inquired whether it was necessary for my client, Speaker Vos, to sign the verification page to the recall challenge. I explained that Speaker Vos was traveling and thus not able to access a Wisconsin notary. I inquired whether I should submit an unnotarized declaration from Speaker Vos, and Attorney Witecha stated that, as counsel for Speaker Vos, I could sign the verification on his behalf. Attorney Witecha stated that it was common for attorneys to sign on behalf of their clients, and that this was appropriate because it was not a complaint alleging election law violations. I relied on this advice in submitting the verified challenge to recall petition on June 7.

3. Late in the afternoon on June 12, I received an e-mail from WEC Attorney Brandon Hunzicker with two attachments: (1) Rebuttal of Petitioner, and (2) the Affidavit of John Von Haden. I have never received a copy of these filings from Attorney Kevin Scott, either via e-mail, U.S. mail, or personal service.

4. Prior to submitting our verified challenge to the recall, I also motioned WEC, via Attorney Witecha and Administrator Wolfe, for relief from Wis. Admin. Code EL 20.05(4)'s requirement for submitting 12 paper copies and the limit on briefs to 5 single-spaced pages. This request was granted. (Exhibit 1.)

As you know, I represent Robin Vos in connection with the recently filed recall petition. We will be filing a challenge to the recall petition. Per my conversation with Attorney Witecha, I am respectfully making a motion for relief from Wis. Admin. Code EL 20.05(4)'s requirement to submit 12 paper copies, as well as the limit of briefs to 5 single-spaced pages. Given the number of signatures submitted and the complexity of the issues involved, I will need more than five single-spaced pages. I would also ask for the ability to submit our materials via a sharefile link rather than paper copies.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Matthew M. Fernholz

DECLARATION OF ROBIN VOS

I, ROBIN VOS, declare under the penalty of perjury as follows:

1. I am an adult individual and citizen of the State of Wisconsin. I have personal knowledge over all statements in this declaration.
2. I am aware that a second recall petition was initiated against me on May 28, 2024. I was also aware that my challenge to the recall petition was due on June 7, 2024
3. I was traveling out of the country during the weeks of June 3 and 10, and thus not able to access a Wisconsin notary to notarize an affidavit or verification page. I authorized my attorney, Matthew Fernholz, to file the challenge to the recall petition on my behalf. I reviewed the challenge and approved it prior to its submission.
4. It is my understanding that Attorney Fernholz contacted WEC's Chief Legal Counsel prior to submitting the challenge to the recall to confirm that I did not need to personally sign the verification page, and that my attorney was permitted to file on my behalf.
5. I have also reviewed the Reply to Matthew Snorek's Rebuttal to the Recall Challenge. I likewise have approved it and authorized Attorney Fernholz to submit it on my behalf.
6. To remove any doubt about whether I approved the challenge to the recall, I am submitting a verification page under penalty of perjury.
